Supervisor Race Tops Interest in Tuesday Election

Homer Varner and Helen Hester Wind Up
Vigorous Campaign; Predict Large Vote
In 13 Precincts Here in Double Election

With local interest centering in the Homer Varner-Helen Hester supervisorial contest but the gubernatorial and senatorial race also attracting much attention, Palm Springs was expected to cast more than its usual percentage of votes at next Tuesday's general election.

TV Reception For Villagers Said Nearer

Another competitor entered the race for television in Palm Springs this week when Howard-Yale Inc., working with International Research associates announced that it will be prepared to give Villagers a television demonstration "within the next few days and possibly early next week."

The demonstration will be from a truck which will be moved to several spots in Palm Springs and the surrounding areas.

SPOKESMAN JULES HOWARD, local resident, said the installation would provide a free television system for Palm Springs, Cathedral City, Palm Desert, Desert Hot Springs and Indio. "There will be no charge other than the price of the television set itself and its installation," said Howard.

"THIS SYSTEM" basically provides reception for any television set owner exactly as is being provided in areas similar to Los Angeles. No wire system control amplifier need be provided," said Howard.

"The system would provide all channel reception and is perfectly compatible for reception of color transmission if and when the stations are able to transmit color signals."

HOWARD SAID HIS firm is announcing the proposed television plan earlier than it had planned because of an announcement earlier this week that Scottie Gray Inc., expects to bring TV here.

Scottie Gray plans to erect an

WESTERN WEEK ENDS IN PARADE AND RODEO

Another Western Week went into history last weekend with another success recorded amidst a lot of fun and hilarity for all hands.

A colorful parade down Palm Canyon drive and thrilling gymnastics wound up the seventh annual Western Week Sunday at the Polo Grounds.

Headed by Little Bear, who came to the Village for the occasion, the parade Sunday attracted entries from all over the southland. It was the 60th time Little Bear had preceded a parade down Palm Canyon drive.

THE SPECTACLE also gave

PALM SPRINGS SUFFERS LITTLE ON HALLOWE'EN

Police Chief August Kettmann surveyed Palm Springs Wednesday morning after ghost and goblin had run rampant the night before and said, "Our city probably has less vandalism and disturbance on Halloween night than any other city in the country for its size."

There was only one major act of vandalism and police listed it as a burglary. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Duncan, 457 Hermosa place, was entered between eight and 11 while they and their guests were having dinner downtown. One hundred dollars was missing when they returned.

POLICE SUSPECT juveniles committed the act. The house is surrounded by a high wall which those entering had to climb. Inside the walls had been damaged by soap, most of the drawers and closets in the house had been gone through, jewelry and several other articles were strewn about the house and many light bulbs were broken.

The burglars apparently stumbled across the $100 by accident as they rummaged through the Duncans' belongings.

Otherwise, Halloween damage was slight throughout the city.

New Cross Walk is Ordered by Council

Taking advantage of a recently amended ordinance, City Manager Russell Rink asked city council this week to approve installation of a new crosswalk on Palm Canyon drive near the Strebe building. The council approved.

Decision on Sun Time Delayed by Council

Organization Completed by Hotel Group

Jere Weber Elected
President by Board
At Meeting Tuesday

Instead of the anticipated pleasant get-together, an unexpected four and one-half hour uphill haul in heavy harness greeted the newly constituted board of directors of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Association when they held their first meeting Tuesday night at the Palm Springs Pueblo.

In addition to electing officers for the 1950-51 term, the board waded through and disposed of the knotty problems involved in a protest of the board elections held at the general membership meeting October 24th.

IT WAS AFTER midnight when the board finally named Jere Weber, president; John Miller, vice-president; Adele Colgan, secretary and Ed Zirinsky, treasurer.

Reports of complaints over the board elections held last week led the board into an impasse which was solved finally by the resignation of newly elected director Mrs. Kay Cordrey. She insisted upon acceptance of her resignation "in the interest of solving the issue, if there is an issue."

Upon her insistence, the board accepted the resignation but a moment later called for her appointment to fill a vacancy on the board, and promptly confirmed her appointment unanimously.

THE SESSION opened at 7:30 with Jere Weber, last year's vice-president, in the chair. Weber reported phone calls from several members who were dissatisfied with the count of ballots in the directorship elections the week before.

After hearing election committee Chairman John Miller report on how the ballots were handled, the board could find no basis for allegations of errors or irregularities.

RETIRING DIRECTOR Whitey Mead, asserting he was acting in behalf of the best interests and harmony of the organization as a whole, successfully pressed home his argument that the board "here and now find some means of laying these ghosts once and for all."

Director Keith Herbert recalled then that five ballots, ruled as invalid by the election committee, were found.

God Help America Unless Citizens Wake Up, Speaker Warns in Talk to Rotarians

God help America unless the people wake up and do something!

With this dramatic assertion, Dr. John R. Lechner concluded an inspirational address before the Rotary club last Wednesday on the dangerous advance of communism in the United States. "Americans are too busy to pay attention to what is going on in this country," the director of Americanism Educational League declared; "they are day dreaming."

"We are facing the most critical times America has ever known," Dr. Lechner continued. "We are living on borrowed time. We must do something to combat the political chicanery that is going on in this country, the lies being spread and the Utopian promises being made. Americans can control the destiny of this nation only by their votes."

THE SPEAKER described Communism as a pseudo philosophy and conspiracy — an unsincere and deliberate attempt to deceive the American people. He said the movement was cloaked in a mysterious, super-natural relationship between the state and the people. "Communism is held out as a cure-all for human ills," the doctor declared, "and millions of people throughout the world have fallen for it. Twenty million are held captive in the concentration camps of Siberia."

One and a half percent of the population of Russia rules the country, Dr. Lechner said; the other ninety-eight and a half percent are slaves who live in fear of the secret police. He went on to describe the attitude of American and English diplomats toward the USSR and told how they had been duped through their inability to understand the ruthlessness of the Russians.

"THE OBJECT of Communism," he said, "is to overthrow by violence. It is not a legitimate movement in this country. It is an implanted program. When Russia is through playing around like a cat with a mouse," he continued, "they have a plan of attack. It calls for an attack by force, likely with atomic weapons; but a week or ten days before that there would be a general strike. They are prepared for an all-out campaign of sabotage of industries and transportation to render any armed resistance ineffective after the attack."

Dr. Lechner told how 150 billion dollars has been spent by the United States in the past five years to stop the spread of Communism, but the trouble is, he said, "we haven't got the guts because of political expediency."

In concluding the address he gave this solution:

"Americans must demand that the Communistic movement in America be outlawed."

Want More Time to Get All the Facts

Large Delegation at Council Session
To Join in Debate

Following a marathon session marked by heated debate from the floor, city council decided action on Sun Time immediately but to study the proposal further in committee of the whole.

Councilman Florian Boyd and Ruth Hardy and Mayor Charles Farrell voiced the conclusions of the group following a 15-minute recess at 9:30 to discuss Sun Time privately.

SAID FARRELL—"It is necessary for us to consider the feelings of all groups in this and attempt to reach a decision which will be fair to all. We must think of the home owners, the merchants as well as the hotel owners."

Said Mrs. Hardy—"Sun Time necessitates a selling job to the outlying communities of Cathedral City, Desert Hot Springs and Thousand Palms as well as the support of local civic organizations and the school district to be a success. We must make the people want it before it will work."

SAID BOYD—"That's right, Sun Time must have the backing of all interested groups before it can be successful. The council should also consider the ideas and opinions of the other communities in the school district before taking action."

Mrs. Hardy and Councilman Jerry Nathanson have gone on record as supporting Sun Time while Mayor Farrell has come out against it.

REALTOR ROBERT RANSOM led off the debate in favor of the new time with a lengthy letter to the council. He said that contrary to the belief of some, many school families want daylight saving. "The local theaters, the sportsmen, the doctors and

The PUBLISHER'S Corner

UNLESS MORE AMERICANS wake up to the importance of voting on candidates for public office and laws enacted by submission to the electors, our democratic form of government is in great danger. People are given ample opportunity these days to learn about the candidates and issues. It takes but a little while to decide upon them—and only a few minutes to vote. The election next Tuesday is an important one; its results will effect everyone directly or indirectly. Every voter should assume that the outcome of the election depend on his or her vote alone.

New state laws—and amendments to existing ones—are submitted as eleven state propositions. Many of them—especially Number 6—are highly important and should be decided by the majority of the people. Each one is explained briefly on the editorial page of this issue and recommendations made in most cases. But people can and should—study these matters and decide for themselves. Our opinion is given only after careful consideration of the proposals but there are nearly always arguments on both sides and every voter should register his or her individual opinion.

Candidates are usually pretty well known. We believe the records of Governor Warren and Representative Richard Nixon are considered good by people of both parties. If you agree, go out and vote for them. In the contest for attorney general, we like Edward S. Shattuck. Congressman Phillips and Assemblyman Babbage have no opposition. There is a contest for county supervisor from this district between Helen E. Hester and Homer S. Varner. Both seem fairly well qualified. We didn't like Varner's attitude on the cement mill issue because we were very much against it. Just how he would stand as a supervisor if the issue comes up again we don't know. We just wonder.

The strongest recommendation we would like to make to the voters of Palm Springs is to vote "NO" on proposition number 6—legalizing gambling. We are also very much against number 1 which would only mean transferring taxes from one thing to another and upsetting numerous state functions (including the schools) in the meantime.

If a large percentage of the people vote, the decision of the majority will be for the best. In that way, smaller groups who are organized can be balanced off by the large number of independent voters.

Be a good citizen—a good American! Vote at the election next Tuesday and remind all of your friends to do likewise.

Cities Seek More Equal Tax Charge

Want Unincorporated Areas to Carry Own Load Declares Rink

League of California Cities will press the California legislature for legislation prohibiting payment of county funds for services to unincorporated communities, said City Manager Russell Rink this week after returning from the four-day 52nd annual convention of the league in Los Angeles last week.

"The League decided the cities are tired of carrying the burden for unincorporated areas," said Rink, "and the League feels they should either incorporate or form special districts. One proposal put forth at the convention was to levy a one cent sales tax on unincorporated areas and a half cent tax in the incorporated districts. This would make the areas pay more of their own expenses."

EXAMPLES CITED at the convention were Castro Valley, a community of 15,000 near Oakland which is unincorporated and receives police, fire and other protection from the county; Paradise, a settlement of 10,000 near Chico, also unincorporated, and Bakersfield, where only 40,000 of a 100,000 population live within the city limits.

Near Palm Springs, Cathedral City and Desert Hot Springs are unincorporated communities. Four other city officials represented Palm Springs at the conference. They were City Treasurer Robert Peterson, City Engineer Charles Woodman, City Clerk George McInturn and City Clerk Louise McCann.

MAYOR FLETCHER BOWRON welcomed the 2,000 delegates to Los Angeles and they made their headquarters at the Los Angeles Biltmore. Gov. Earl Warren addressed the Convention last Wednesday night.

Forums on civic matters and panel discussions in each department of city work marked the sessions. Rink was a speaker at a Finance officers' session speaking on "Making Statistical and Accounting Information More Useful."

Pony Rides, too, at Sunair Drive-in Sunair drive-in theater last week added to its many services by showing people movies when it presented free pony rides for children an hour before the show started. The management plans to open the theater an hour early again this Saturday and Sunday to continue the plan.

600 Trailerites Convene in Village for 3-Day Session

Palm Springs became the Trailer capital of the southwest today as hundreds of trailerites rolled their roving homes into the city for the annual three-day rally sponsored by the Trailer Coach association.

Scene of the convention is the Polo Grounds and the sessions start today and continue through Sunday.

Gorham Attends P. M. Convention

R. M. (Pop) Gorham, postmaster, returned to the Village Friday morning after a vacation trip into Georgia, his old home state, and a stopover at St. Louis to attend the national convention of the National Postmasters' association.

In Georgia, Postmaster Gorham visited with relatives at Maysville. He reported a great trip via Sunset and Golden State limiteds and a fine time in the south and at the convention.

Fire Station for La Quinta Area

Mel Miller, assistant ranger for the desert district, told Coachella Valley Advisory Planning committee members last week that the state division of forestry is planning to establish a new fire station at La Quinta soon.

In the local area, the division already has stations at Desert Hot Springs, Palm Village and Cathedral City. They do not go into incorporated cities such as Palm Springs, he said but have an agreement to render assistance when needed.

Stevens School Program Site

Lloyd Mason Smith, director of Desert Museum, said this week that starting tomorrow night, all Saturday night programs of the Museum will be held at Frances S. Stevens school, in the 500 block on North Palm Canyon drive. Tomorrow night's program will present John Hilton, well known desert author, who will speak on "My Garden in Sonora." The talk

State Chamber Puts Off Ruling On Rain-Making

Differences of opinion on the effectiveness of artificial rain making held up action by the state chamber of commerce last week on a proposed state appropriation to finance cloud seeding.

The question was argued before the southern legislative council of the state chamber at the Biltmore hotel in Los Angeles but no action was taken on recommending legislation to aid rain making.

Proponents of the rain-making plan said California could end its water problem at a cost of less than one-half cent an acre. Robert Elliot of the Pasadena Institute of Aerological research said that the state could take water off its problem list by cloud seeding.

But A. K. Showalter, chief U. S. weather bureau forecaster, said artificial rain-making was "an intriguing matter and worthy of investigation." He added that several years of careful experiments were needed before definite action could be taken.

In the meantime, plans are going ahead to start rain making operations with headquarters at Beaumont this month. The project is in charge of the Precipitation Control company, an Arizona firm, and the field of operations takes in San Jacinto peak back of Palm Springs.

Prop. 1 Would Boost Home Tax Rate 77 Cents

The average home owner in Riverside county could expect the tax bill on his home to go up about $19.25, contrasted with a "saving" of about $4.58 in the tax on his furniture if Prop. No. 1 is not defeated and the crisis it would create was solved by putting the burden of the lost revenues on real property, California Taxpayers' association declared today.

Total property tax bill in the county for 1949-50 was $11,175,210, levied against $35,467,100 of personal property and $208,799,460 of real property. If this tax bill had been levied only on real property, it would have meant an average tax rate increase of $0.77 to an estimated $5.35 on the real property in the county for 1949-50.

Damage in Blaze At Smoke Tree Is Set at $2000

Damage estimated at $2,000 was done to a home owned by Mrs. Betty McKinley in Smoke Tree ranch Monday evening. The flames which did most of the damage to the roof of the frame structure, apparently started at a water heater.

Neighbors reported that they had smelled smoke for almost two hours but that investigation failed until the flames were noticed coming through the roof. The Smoke Tree ranch pumper was first at the scene and was assisted by ten Palm Springs firemen and several pieces of equipment. They were at the scene of the blaze for more than an hour.

Dr. V.A. Chapman Hurt in Accident

Dr. Vernon A. Chapman, Village doctor, will be delayed in his planned return to Palm Springs, he informed friends here this week.

He is in a Joplin, Mo. hospital as result of an automobile accident outside of that city last week.

The automobile which he was driving back to Palm Springs collided with one operated by two Joplin residents, injuring all three men.

Dr. Chapman suffered shock and bruises about the knees in the accident and was taken to Freeman hospital in Joplin.

Rival Board Candidates Give Views at Rally

Banning residents heard the two candidates for fourth district supervisor in talks on their qualifications at a meeting at Woman's clubhouse there last week.

Mrs. Helen Hester discussed her previous civic and club work, gave a brief history of Riverside county and explained the workings of the various county departments. She told her listeners her interest in the Calimesa - Beaumont - Banning area was as great as her interest in the desert area.

Homer Varner, who described briefly his former work as an Indian city official and his present activities on the planning commission, emphasized the county's need for more industries of the type fitted for the areas they move into.

Mrs. Hester and Varner oppose each other on the November 7 ballot.

Junior College Plan Still Vague Says Educator

Plans for a junior college in Coachella Valley as a union district comprising Palm Springs and Coachella Valley Union high school, are still far distant. Don Mitchell, trustee for the Coachella district said last week.

He said state officials advised him not to start a new school with only a small enrollment.

At a meeting here last summer between Coachella Valley Union high school trustees and Palm Springs Unified district board members, it was decided that each district is too small to support a junior college and a union college was suggested. Mitchell said that this was in the far future.

He made his report to the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning committee at its meeting in Cathedral City last Wednesday.

Villager Officer In N. U. Drive

Barbara LaDage, 1508 El Alameda, is one of 16 Northwestern university students holding executive positions on the 1950 student service fund board, according to word from Evanston, Ill.

The charity drive leaders solicit funds from students and faculty members to be used for needy students' student projects or foreign students.

Miss LaDage was chairman of organizational activities. She is a junior at the Evanston university.

M. A. Graettinger was formerly secretary of the American Bankers association and for years secretary of the Illinois Bankers association. Later he has been doing economic research work for the latter association.

SO, NOW IT'S A NEW STATE, NOT JUST A COUNTY THAT THEY WANT

Not so long ago Steve Ragsdale, known as Desert Steve of Desert Center and Harry Oliver of Thousand Palms, who is the Desert Rat, got together and, affected probably by the desert sunshine—dreamed up a new state.

They gave it the name of Geronimo and would carve it out of Arizona, Nevada and California cactus areas including Palm Springs but also crossing the Colorado into Arizona and swiping Death Valley and parts of Nevada.

SPECIFICALLY, Geronimo would include Mojave and Yuma counties of Arizona, Nye and Clark counties in Nevada and Imperial and part of Riverside county in California.

Desert Center would be the capital. Desert Steve the governor and Harry Oliver the state printer. Death Valley Scotty would be treasurer.

The election has already been held and all of the officers have accepted except Oliver who is holding out to find out if there's any work connected with the job. If so, no soap.

THIS NEW "STATE" would have both sides of the Colorado River, Hoover Dam, Death Valley, the Salton Sea, Scotty's Castle, Mitchell's Caverns, Lake Havasu and its own seaport on the Gulf of California.

Taking in both sides of the Colorado it would "own" the river. The citizens wouldn't pay taxes but would charge Los Angeles plenty for water and power from "their river."

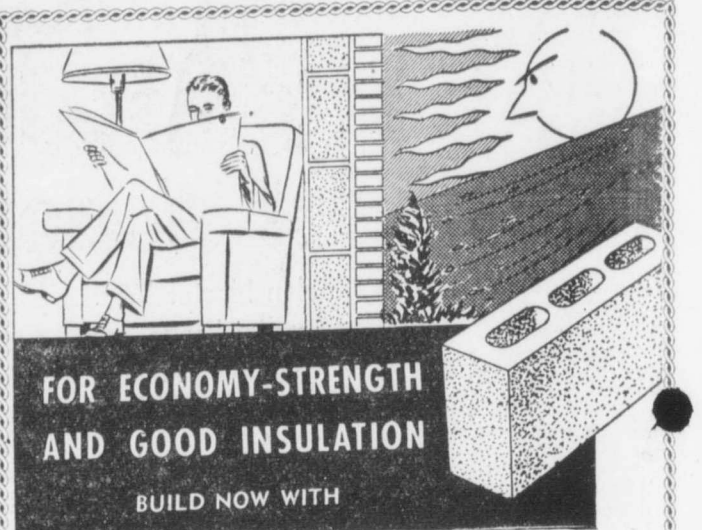

The new state was born when old-timers gathered at Desert Center recently to talk over old times and swap lies about early days on the desert.

Harry Paynes of Needles, has already drawn a map of Geronimo.

NOT SO LONG AGO Oliver started a movement to split Riverside county, making a new county to be known as Desert county. But when an earthquake shook up the county two years ago he abandoned the plan.

"I was just kidding," he said. "That's taking it too seriously and going too deep down."

So, his county secession plan temporarily shelved, Oliver is now plugging the new state.

Higher Tax Bills Arrive This Week

Bills Payable Now And Will Become Delinquent Dec. 5

The bad news was in the mails today—and much of it already in the hands of those for whom it was intended.

Tax bills are out. Marguerite Hyde, county tax collector, said Saturday that all of the bills had been mailed by that date. Villagers began receiving their bills last week.

Miss Hyde asked that any taxpayers who had not received their bills by November 10, a week from today, should notify her at once. The bills become due and payable upon receipt and are delinquent after December 5.

TAXPAYERS FOUND that their County supervisors, sensitive to bills ranged from ten per cent anticipated outcries, prepared for more than last year and higher. Taxpayers with the bills that they were only responsible for part of the bill and that schools and cities took a large share.

In the city the rate ranges from $5.29 per $100 assessed valuation to $5.41. The sections of the city paying the latter rate are in the mosquito abatement and Coachella Valley water district paying .04 cents and .10 cents respectively. Some sections pay to .06 cent sanitary rate whereas others do not.

THE LOCAL RATE is split up follows compared with 1949 rates:

County	50-51	49-50
City	1.93	1.50
Schools	1.28	1.31
Cemetery	1.68	1.64
*Flood Control	.05	.03
*Hospital	.12	.13
*Mosquito	.21	.18
*Sanitary	.04	.04
*CV Water	.06	.09
*Storm Dist.	.10	.10
*Does not include all of city.	.29	.39

THE TAX BILL which everyone pays, exclusive of the special district rates, some of which apply to every portion of the city in varying amounts, is $4.93 this year. Last year it was $4.45. Special district rates, with the exception of flood control and sanitary, are also higher.

The tax bill is based on a valuation within the city of $27,697,150.

CHAMBER

for the 1950-51 season are Lions International District Convention, California Savings and Loan League, California Newspaper Publishers Assn., Ivy League Alumni Clubs, and many others.

The publicity staff consists of Jan Guthrie, publicity director and Don Du Bose, staff photographer. A complete photo laboratory will be located at the new Chamber offices in order to maintain pictures and material for newspaper and magazine coverage.

The visitors bureau and newly inaugurated reservation service is manned by two full-time and one part-time employees at the counter.

PURPOSE OF THE NEW reservation service is to arrange accommodations for visitors calling on the Chamber of Commerce (either by mail, telephone, wire or in person) for assistance in arranging accommodations and to operate with travel agents throughout the country. It is expected that the service, which is open to chamber members, will result in increased tourist trade for Palm Springs. In order to formulate policy and to guide the chamber in the operation of the new bureau, representatives from various hotels are acting as an advisory committee.

In conjunction with the announcement of the opening of the new Chamber of Commerce offices, Mr. Herbert also announced that a three-year lease had been signed for the new quarters.

Church to Stage Annual Mexican Fiesta in Plaza

Our Lady of Guadalupe Church's Third Annual Fiesta will be held in the Plaza Dec. 10, according to the Rev. Raymond Klumbis. President of the fiesta is Mrs. Anna Gonzalez.

The evening party, to which the public is invited, will feature Mexican music and folk dancing. Some Hollywood stars might also be on hand. Master of ceremonies will be Raymond Navarro, of Hollywood.

Proceeds from the event, said Father Klumbis, will go to the church to be used for children's playgrounds. The fiesta will celebrate Our Lady of Guadalupe holiday which falls on Dec. 12.

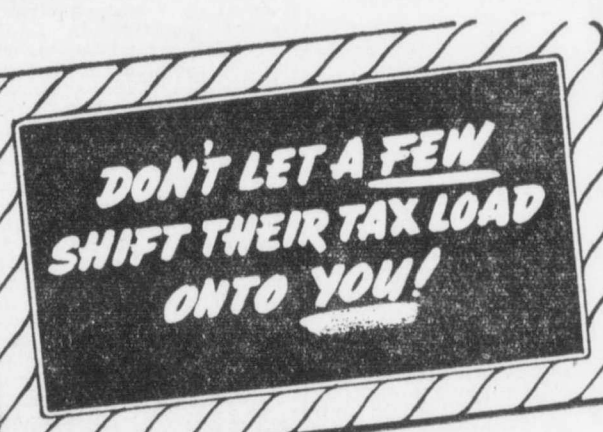

"We will try to make the Plaza look like Mexico as it once was," said the Reverend. "It will seem like another Olvera street."

Veterans Urged to Apply for Dividends

It is estimated that one million veterans have not yet filed for their National Service Life Insurance dividends, according to a Veterans Administration spokesman this week. Those who have not applied are invited to visit any VA office and fill out an application blank.

About 14,000 veterans have already received dividends, it was stated by V.A. Payments began January, 1950 and were for the most part completed by July 1950.

Proposition No. 1 is a misleading proposal which endangers the school system and all other local government services. Under the guise of repealing the personal property tax, it removes a huge tax burden from a few big taxpayers and transfers that burden to the average citizen.

The average taxpayer today pays a personal property tax of $6.00—rarely more than $10. Certain big taxpayers pay personal property taxes in the millions. Should the tax be repealed, the $203 million dollars of revenue it provides schools and local governments must be raised in higher sales taxes—increased nuisance taxes—increased taxes on homes.

WHICH IS BETTER FOR YOU?

$6.00 PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX OR 5 1/2% SALES TAX OR A $45.00 INCREASE IN TAX ON YOUR HOME

For example: If all the loss should be made up by the sales tax, it would mean a 50% increase, bringing the sales tax to 5 1/2% IN MOST LOCALITIES.

If all the loss should be made up by the tax on real estate, it would add 30% to your tax bill, or an average of $45 ON EVERY HOME in the State.

Chamber Dance Party Scheduled On November 24

Chamber of Commerce board of directors decided to hold the annual chamber dance and party Nov. 24 at its regular board session last week. Milton Hicks will direct preparations for the event which will feature popular music and games. The public is invited.

Thrifty Five & Ten and Palm Springs Florists were each awarded $10 summer window display awards by the board. "Such display awards may encourage more attractive store windows in Palm Springs during the summer months," said President Keith Herbert.

Board member George Clark's resignation was accepted at the session. He said that out of town business interests would keep him from devoting the necessary time to the chamber position. Three new appointments were made to fill vacancies. They are George Olean, Lucien Shaw and Sy Slocum.

Red Infiltration Into High Office Told by Phillips

Communist infiltration into U. S. leadership spots in government was the subject of Congressman John Phillips address before the Lions club of Cathedral City last week. He drew an alarming picture of Communist infiltration into personnel posts, into economic advisory posts. "We must make the United States a spot which is unhealthy for the development of subversive systems and their bright young men. This is no time to be joining movements for this and that, without a knowledge of what the fundamental objectives of the movement are. As sincere, right thinking individuals, we are all too easily misled by our generous idealism."

Mr. Phillips praised the service clubs in their successful efforts to renew our faith in democracy. "For myself," he said, "I am satisfied with a system of government that could stand on its own feet for 175 years and be able to bail out the world over two world wars. If it is good enough to give us the strength we have, it is reasonably good. Let's keep it that way."

Supervisor Collis Mayflower is an inventor and also a genius, according to county seat newsmen.

For a long time they have been developing a boarding house reach by leaning over the expansive table in the supervisors' room to reach for papers they needed for their stories. Attempts to slide the papers failed because they either flew off the table or were stymied by some obstacle.

Desert Sun's Ballot Recommendations

Eleven proposals for changes in state laws, or enactment of new ones, are presented for decision of the voters at next Tuesday's election. Voters received a booklet with their sample ballot which explains the propositions in detail and gives arguments for and against. Every voter should study these proposals. As a guide for those who neglect to do so, we give below a brief description of the propositions with The Desert Sun's recommendations.

No. 1. Prohibits state, counties, cities and school districts from imposing (as they now do) taxes on personal property, tangible or intangible. This includes household goods and furnishings, furniture and office equipment, stocks or merchandise (as of March 1st), personal property of railroads and public utilities—and likely the tax on automobiles. . . . Proponents of the measure claim that the present tax discriminates against California industry, that it is an expensive tax to collect—and that the new law will force tax bodies to provide other income to replace the personal property tax and bring about a drastic reduction in public expenditures. . . . Opponents hold that personal property should be taxed, that the enactment of the measure would upset the whole financial program of the state, counties, cities and school districts and create chaos in the state because time is not given to levy other taxes. The measure is opposed by most taxpayers associations.

RECOMMENDED VOTE "NO"

No. 2. Prohibits naming of persons to public office in any constitutional amendment. This proposition would make it impossible to even submit to the people such a proposition as No. 6 (see below) wherein persons can set themselves up in public office by creating a new governmental agency. This is a good law.

VOTE "YES" ON NO. 2

No. 3. This proposition provides for a reorganization of the inferior (not superior) court system in the state. It is considered by attorneys and other groups as a needed reform but opposed by some on the grounds that control of the lower courts is removed further from the people.

RECOMMENDED VOTE: "YES"

No. 4. Would allow voters who move from one county to another within 90 days prior to an election to vote in the county of their former residence. It makes it possible for more people to vote—and should be passed.

VOTE "YES" ON NUMBER 4

No. 5. Permits Senators and Assemblymen to serve as members of boards or commissions created to apportion or allocate state funds to other state or local agencies. Advocates claim that the proposition would assist in carrying out the intention of the Legislature in providing funds, and would keep the Legislature informed on the administration of the program involved. Opponents, on the other hand, hold that the proposal violates the established principle of separating the legislative and administrative branches of government. There is weight to the arguments on both sides. Voters who understand the proposition can easily decide for themselves. Otherwise,

RECOMMENDED VOTE "NO"

Proposition 6. Most people know this proposition as the one which legalizes gambling in California. As bait, it also creates a pension and welfare fund. This is the most important proposition of all—is a dangerous piece of legislation regardless of the gambling issue involved. Voters should read every one of its 14 sections and be on the lookout for the jokers. It will be noted at the outset that the authors name THEMSELVES as the first five gambling commissioners—that the Legislature, governor or courts would have practically no control over them and that they fill vacancies themselves. (This sort of thing will be prevented in the future if Proposition 2 is passed). Even though you may be in favor of gambling in California,

VOTE "NO" ON NUMBER 6

No. 7. Makes it possible for blind persons to become licensed chiropractors in California. The measure was passed overwhelmingly by both houses of the legislature. Voters can easily judge such a proposition for themselves.

RECOMMENDATION NOT MADE

No. 8. Changes existing law by making it possible to increase the pay of public officials during their term of office. Because of the present law, some officials (such as supervisors) serving in the same body receive different pay—this amendment is designed to correct such inequities in the law. On the other hand, opponents point out that it is an established principle of good government that officials should not be permitted to receive compensation increases during their terms of office. This is another one that voters can easily decide for themselves.

RECOMMENDATION NOT MADE

No. 9. Exempts from state Civil Service a selected few officers and employees which it is believed should not be included. It is a minor exemption and has little opposition.

RECOMMENDED VOTE "YES"

No. 10. According to the official summary this measure would require approval by a majority vote of the electors of any county or city at any general election as prerequisite for establishment of any low-rent housing project by the state or any county, city, district, authority, or other state body; defines low-rent housing, exempts any project subject to existing contract between a state public body and the federal government. Proponents say that this proposed amendment is strictly in accordance with the principles of American representative government. It is designed to restore to the people the right to decide by a majority vote whether or not a public housing project shall be established in their community, and the tax burden of the taxpayer thereby increased through the consequent issuance of housing authority bonds and federal and local city or county contributions. It would provide public regulation of public expenditures and safeguard against legislative abuses. Opponents, on the other hand claim that this proposition is wholly unnecessary, and is contrary to established principle of American representative government, that it would substantially increase the tax load in cities and counties of the State by tending to preserve our slums which are costly in terms of police and fire protection; that it would set up a slow, cumbersome and costly procedure that would make expeditious action in time of an emergency impossible. On the grounds that the voters, on the local level, should have the right to pass on a low-rent housing project in their locality, The Desert Sun favors passage of the amendment.

RECOMMENDED VOTE "YES"

No. 11. This is an amendment proposed by the Legislature to an initiative statute, commonly referred to as the Torrens Act, adopted by the voters in 1914. The act established an optional method of recording land titles, involving a judicial determination and the issuance of a judicial decree conclusively establishing title. The method has been little used. There is no provision in the act for the withdrawal of land titles from the operation of the act once a title has been so registered. This proposition would provide a method.

RECOMMENDED VOTE "YES"

Construction or Destruction

Good news it was for California motorists last week when the State Department of Public Works announced plans for spending 115 million dollars on highway construction and repair in the year beginning next July 1. That much money should do a lot toward making our highways, which have deteriorated rapidly of late years, safer and more pleasurable for the motoring public.

However, some highway news last week from the State of Maryland will serve as a warning to Californians that expenditure of money cannot of itself assure better highways and country roads.

For more than four months, a one-mile stretch of standard-construction highway there has been closed to ordinary traffic. Day and night, during that time, eight trucks of varying weights have been grinding back and forth along individual sections of the pavement. The purpose of the experiment, financed by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads and 10 cooperating States, was to determine to what extent heavy and overloaded trucks damage public highways.

The result? The public of Maryland already is in a state of alarm over the incredible disintegration of the test pavement. "It is bulging and cracking," cries the Baltimore Evening Sun, in an editorial demanding rigid enforcement of truck-weight laws.

Another newspaper, The Sunday Sun, declared that "Marylanders know that dozens of overloaded vehicles are picked up each week on Maryland highways. They also know that the fines levied for overloading are very often ridiculously low and . . . have not put much of a damper on violations."

California's motorists don't need a testing experiment to prove that their highways are being pounded to pieces by trucking law violators. The evidence is on every highway in the State. Unless the public demands and insists on law-enforced correction of these abuses, expenditure of that 115 million on highways will be tax money wasted.

Memory Lane

Los Angeles newspapers have been printing misleading reports on local roads. They say the Palm Canyon road is closed and one even said the road to Palm Springs is closed. Both are erroneous to the extreme as both roads are open and being well traveled.

Palm Springs is growing. Five hundred fifty people are now getting their mail at the local post office. To date, 350 lock boxes have been rented and 200 are calling regularly at the general delivery window.

I Rise to Remark

By CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

The conflict in Korea appears to be in its final stages. With the end of that "police action" in sight, many will wonder why the talk of congressional allocations, priorities and the like, still continues. The answer is that even though the end of shooting may be at hand, there will be no tapering off in defense demands. Mobilization will continue, and the buying of military goods will soar; around $15 billion per year now, probably double next year.

The world is in turmoil, and although there is hope that some monumental decision will swing the world toward peace, down deep the nation knows that armament is the only insurance against disaster.

THE PRESSURE which will result from such spending is tremendous. You have felt it, and will feel it increasingly as the months go by. Chances are that you have already begun to think of money as less valuable than things, a natural result of the dollar-cheapening process which has been going on for years. It is a danger sign. The $18 billion we voted for defense, just before adjourning, will now, sixty days later, buy only what $16.5 billion would then.

To curb the inflation which would result from having too much money and not enough goods, the planners are preparing controls. Credit restrictions have hit the buying of homes, autos and appliances. Charge accounts will be next. Heavy taxes will be inevitable.

Industrial controls are in the mill. Rubber already is controlled, although not at the consumer level. The machinery to govern raw materials, power, and fuels has been established.

NO ONE KNOWS when wage and price controls will be invoked, but the talk in Washington is that these ugly twins of credit and industrial curbs will arrive early in 1951. Bureaucracy is trying to find a loophole to apply price controls without wage controls. Economic magazine.

HOW TO FIND HAPPINESS IN YOUR WORK

We seem to have what are, if you stop to think about it, some strange customs in the United States. For example, on Labor Day most of us didn't work because we were celebrating a holiday dedicated to the glory of working. And that was a fine idea because we ought to take time off from work to think about what it means. Too many of us have never really found out.

Let's take the case of a boy I know. I was always getting him out of trouble—and I say "I" because he always came to me when something went wrong. For five years, I pulled him out of one scrape after another.

I was able to get him four or five different jobs. A potential employer would ask me, "Is this boy any good?" I would reply, "I have great hopes of him."

Then the employer would usually say: "I didn't ask about your hopes. I asked you if he was any good."

But I never let my young friend down. I'd say, "I think he's got it in him if anybody can get it out of him." Then he'd get the job and, invariably, soon after, he'd be out of work again.

HE WAS REALLY a good fellow. He had an engaging smile and he had dreams in his heart and he had ideals. He really wanted to make something of himself. I talked to him and prayed with him. I sent him to people I thought might help him. Eventually, however, I began to get discouraged.

Then, one night, I drove somewhere to make a speech and he went along with me. As we rode, he talked about himself. Why did he always fail at his work? That's what he couldn't figure out. I suggested we take his last job and analyze it and between us perhaps we could find out why he had failed in that one job. It might give us a clue to his general tendency to failure.

"I didn't like the vice-president," he explained, and he told me why in detail.

After listening awhile, I ventured to point out: "The vice-president wasn't on trial; you were. He has a job; you haven't."

He didn't say anything more for a while and then, suddenly, he exclaimed: "I've got it! I've got it!"

"Got what?" I asked.

"I know what's the matter with me. Everything goes wrong for me because I am wrong myself!"

Then I know that, at last, he was going to be all right. He had discovered that profound truth that Shakespeare wrote about when he had one of his characters say, "The fault . . . is not in our stars, but in ourselves, that we are underlings." And this boy did turn out all right by making himself right. Today he is a respected and successful citizen of his community.

THE WAY to find happiness in your work is to think about it in terms of improving yourself. Don't try to make others over; that's their responsibility, not yours. If you think of what you can do to make your work more pleasant for your associates and yourself by avoiding the friction that worrying about the shortcomings of others brings, you will have taken a major step in that direction.

Then, try to take real pride in what you are doing by doing it efficiently and well. There is real craftsmanship to be displayed in every task. Indifference or shoddy work always leaves a vague feeling of unhappiness inside you because it violates something in your nature. A poor job doesn't hurt the boss half as much as it does the man who does it.

If you can honestly say to yourself that you are looking within yourself to find your own shortcomings so that you may correct them, if you are making a real effort to do a quality of work on which you can pride yourself, and if you respect the work and the rights of others, then you will be happy in your own work.

THIS LAST THOUGHT is an important one, all year round. In his fine book, "Mr. Jones, Meet the Master," the late chaplain of the United States Senate, Peter Marshall, gives us a prayer which fits the occasion: "Lord, bless all who serve us, who have dedicated their lives to the ministry of others—all the teachers of our schools who labor so patiently with so little appreciation; all who wait upon the public, the clerks in the stores who have to accept criticism, complaints, bad manners, selfishness at the hands of a thoughtless public. Bless the mailmen, the drivers of street cars and buses who must listen to people who lose their tempers."

"Bless every humble soul who, in these days of stress and strain, preaches sermons without words. Amen."

Doctor's Pride

A revolt by general practitioners, en masse, against socialized medicine in England may bring the whole scheme to collapse soon, in the opinion of Dr. Charles Hill, member of Parliament and retiring president of the World Medical Association.

England's family doctors feel, says Dr. Hill, that the hurried and inefficient method forced upon them under the socialized panel system is costing them the professional respect of their colleagues and the confidence of the public.

If these doctors pull out—not on their patients of course, but on Socialist regimentation—and return to the scientific practice of medicine as they understand it and as their patients appreciate it, State medicine cannot endure in the tight little isle. And perhaps the shouts of bureaucrats for a plunge into the same mess on this side of the Atlantic will at last be toned down.

the man who got out of doing dishes

Dad is wearing a self-satisfied grin these days. He finally discovered a way out of his most disagreeable chore — wiping dishes! Now, when the evening meal is over, he puts on his slippers, lights his pipe, and settles down in the easy chair with the sports page. How did he do it? That's easy! He bought an electric dish washer. Now, all Mother has to do is clear the table and place the dishes, glassware, and silver in the dish washer, and they're washed, rinsed, and dried automatically. And what's more, they come out sparkling clean . . . and sterilized. Another modern electric servant has lightened the kitchen chores for Mother and has given Dad the night off . . . every night!

Social Highlights

The very young society crowd take top place in the social spotlight this week. About fifty of them—members of the Junior Hi Cotillion or seventh and eighth grades at St. Teresa's—were Halloween guests of Diane and Darlene Dodge at their home on Palos Verdes avenue Tuesday evening.

Dressed up in everything from mother's first party dress to hosiery and scare-crow garb and all mixed up with witches, black cats and hobgoblins, they square danced and sang and had a turn at musical chairs, sack races and apple-bobbing. What the Dodos didn't think of Roy Randolph did, even to the old Mexican game of breaking the "Pinita" with a shower of candies.

There was a grand march before the Halloween feast served on tables around the tennis courts and prizes awarded Pat Sullivan and Fred Strebe, who came as Pom-Pom girls for the best couple; Ann Gerhart and Lucy Ogaz (Maggie and Jiggs) for being the funniest; and to Barbara Briones, the cutest little girl you've ever seen; Georgette Deveney, a dazzling fairy; and Jerry Lewis, a black witch with red broom.

The hostesses were pretty as a picture in their twin Floradora costumes of shell pink. Honorable mention goes to each guest there for they were a cute bunch and all the costumes were individual and either fantastic or beautiful.

Youngest guest at the party was Denny Bogert who was perfect as a little Chinese girl in bright red. Then there were Peter Isenale, Sue Ritter, Happy Ripley, Marvin Yager, Carol Saindon, James McRory, Ricky Highland, Melissa Hall, Bon Bailey, Dick Pell, Selina and Jessica Seiter and Dorothy, Corrin and Georgann Strebe.

Also Larry Paul, Ricky Metz, Leslie Pratt, Barbara Cooper, Mary Lee Paul, Johanna Graves, Eugene Olsen, Dorothy Vallier, Paulina Mansfield and Mary Golden.

Others were Ronnie Rasch, Elaine Cooper, Rose Marie Murray, Elaine Ratto, Mona Heiser, Mary K. Hughes, Rochelle Levert, Jean Hicks and Carol Stanford.

Gay Party Honors Thorntons

Julie and Ken Colborn's soiree last Friday was just like the old moonlight parties at the Tennis Club. Braziers glowed in the patio, with Santos and his boys in charge of the food and drink department and Ray Whitaker, Jerry and the bunch playing some of the old familiar tunes for dancing. The party honored Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thornton, who left the next day for their home in Ottawa, Illinois, and Mrs. John Blish, now a regular member of the winter colony.

Spotted among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ewing, the Ted Charlesons, Dr. and Mrs. Lee Douglas, down for the weekend with John and Gwen Costello, Kay and Earl Cordrey with their houseguests from New York, Fred and Kay Stone, the John Woods, John Connors and lots of others.

Parties planned and being planned for Miss Martha Lou Manson who will be a December bride, include a buffet supper and recipe shower to be hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holland next Sunday evening at their home on West El Portal.

Guests will include the parents of the bride-to-be, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Manson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fry, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Woodmansee, Mrs. Hortense Murray, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Beilingham of San Pedro, Mr. and Mrs. Val Blatz, the William Wrights, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cree, Mrs. W. H. Eisenman, the R. P. Johnsons, and Misses Sara Jean Jenkins, Helen Thompson, Edna Mae La Point and Eunice Crooke.

In the Local Social Whirl

Mrs. Vivian Summerfield returned to her home in Las Palmas Estates last week after a summer spent in her Lake Tahoe Villa. With her came her prized miniature poodles that resemble animated, personality-plus toys. . . . New member of the Bib and Bottle Set, wee Helen Cecilia Kirk, is gurgling her delight at being in Palm Springs with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirk and small sister, Cynthia. . . . Mrs. William H. Eisenman is enroute to her home on Hermosa Place accompanied by guests from Indianapolis and Shaker Heights, Ohio.

Pool-side guests of Evelyn Moran at her Los Olivos avenue home include houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Glasser and Mrs. Abar of Beverly Hills and Malibu, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Matthews (new Palm Springs residents) and Arch Selwyn. Mrs. Moran recently returned from New York, Florida and Havana. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tiano, who recently returned from New York, were recent hosts for a buffet supper and evening of canasta. . . . Vicky Malouf had her friends guessing last week. Somewhere in Los Angeles she convalesced sans appendix while her well-wishers wondered where to send their "Get-well" cards.

Announce Betrothal Of Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Croft of Rancho Mirage this week announced the betrothal of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to James Clifford Searles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Owen Truex.

The wedding will be solemnized January 21 at St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal church, with the Rev. Robert M. Logarth officiating.

Both are graduates of Palm Springs high school and popular members of the younger social group.

Miss Croft attended Redlands University and is now in Los Angeles. Mr. Searles is attending UCLA in Los Angeles.

The young couple will make their home in Los Angeles while he completes his course at the university.

It's Fun Time At Del Tahquitz These Nights

It was fun time Wednesday and Thursday nights at Hotel Del Tahquitz and tonight promises to be more of the same as the hotel's three-day grand opening party draws to a close.

At the Wednesday opening owner Hank Norman was host at a cocktail party and Barney Castro, in charge of the vituals, served guests barbeque ribs and other specialties for which he is famous.

On the tennis court square dancers cavorted with Harry Kester doing the calling and Harry Ton's Rhythm Boys making with the music.

This week marks the 22nd season of entertainment and hospitality for Villagers from del Tahquitz. In charge of festivities for the three days and nights is dance director Roy Randolph.

Artists Work In Clean Field

Starting realistic characters emerge out of bars of soap, under the sculpturing skill of Lola Villa Real, who will bring her fascinating art activity to the desert this season.

Co-Artist Katherine Johnson creates handsome, highly authentic countenances for the novel life-like symbolic or historical figures created by Artist Villa Real out of specially treated bars of washing compound. Despite the comparative frailty of her medium, her characterizations are treated to endure changing temperatures for centuries.

Pioneers in their own field, the unusual craftsmen will establish a local center for their unusual endeavor.

This Week With VILLAGERS

First-family Santa Monica resident and president of that city's Pioneer society, Mrs. Matilda Kennedy is visiting her localite daughter, Electa Kennedy Noyes this week. Accompanied by Grandson Bruce Murray, Mrs. Kennedy is taking respite from her numerous civic and organizational activities in the beach city. She has been a Santa Monica resident of more than 50 years.

Well known in interior decorating salons throughout the world, Mr. and Mrs. William Zeppenfeld have moved into their new Village residence on Via Solad.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Waterman, with three-year-old son, David, visited Mrs. Waterman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Moore at La Varonda this week. Dr. Waterman is a radiologist at Long Beach Veterans hospital.

It was a baby shower for Mrs. Paul Tarr, attended last Monday night, by her fellow teachers of Cahulla school, at the home of Mrs. Mark Hopp, 4137 Sunny Dunes road. Attending the buffet supper event were Mrs. Alma B. Gilbert, Mrs. Alyne Kemp, Mrs. Mary Mitchell, Mrs. Myrtle Kellogg, Mrs. William Larson, Mrs. Seamus Noonan, Mrs. E. C. Laidlaw.

Academy-award-winner Jane Wyman has turned Villager, for the season at least, by taking a house on Puerta del Sol.

Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Dougan of San Jose have purchased a home and installed themselves in it, on North Riverside drive.

A palm tree grows through the roof in Airport Manager Mary Nelson's new home on Baristo road, conveniently located near her busy office at the big local aerial terminus. But rain and wind cannot come in through the tree-growing aperture, according to Joe Rawling, designer of the lengthy, ranch-type dwelling. Besty, Great Dane co-manager of the airport, and the Nelson horses will enjoy special accommodations in their new location.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Massey of San Clemente have become Villagers, via purchase of a home on Mesquite avenue.

Observing their 15th wedding anniversary, Betty and Lou Billington will entertain at a "backyard" barbeque November 5th. Villagers hidden include: Juanita and Merrill Crockett, Miss Dorothy and Jay Morrison, Wanda and Lawrence Richards, Arnold and Grace Davis, Billie Le and Don Floan, Rolie and Cora Cornell, Miss Beth Stebbins, Mrs. Lena Basilone.

Mrs. Randall Henderson, sculptress, and Mrs. Paul Babcock (Political Advertisement)

Two visiting chiefs of police were dinner guests at the home of Chief August Kettmann this week following their attendance at the convention of the California Peace Officers association in Pasadena last week.

They are Chief W. J. Wisnom of Hillsborough, Calif., and Chief R. C. Theuer of Burlingame. They stayed at Smoke Tree ranch during their four-day stay.

The trio discussed problems presented at the Pasadena convention. Speakers at the meeting emphasized the importance of civil defense and discussed methods by which local police could be more effective in time of war disasters.

Woman's Club to Open for New Season Next Monday

By RUTH MARTIN

An event of major importance in Palm Springs which is eagerly anticipated by those interested in its cultural and educational activities is the opening each season of the PALM SPRINGS WOMAN'S CLUB scheduled this week for Monday, November 6th.

The very large membership which the Club enjoys places it in the foremost rank of powerful community organizations and its activities include constructive effort in promoting matters of local and general interest as well as diversified social and entertainment features.

A great deal of intensive effort has been expended during the summer months to perfect plans which will ensure a year filled with highly interesting and instructive programs and more than usual attention centers on affairs planned for the enjoyment of those seeking more of the social atmosphere for which Palm Springs is so justly famous.

The Palm Springs Woman's Club is fortunate in having as its Program Chairman for another season, Mrs. Charles E. Glass, who is ably assisted by Mrs. Fern Jones and Mrs. James

C. Geggie. Artists and lecturers fully as talented and clever as those presented last year have been secured to please the most exacting requirements of those who seek entertainment of the highest caliber.

A particularly lovely program has been arranged for the opening date of November sixth at three o'clock in the afternoon when ANTONIA MORALES, internationally known and famous Spanish dancer, will present a group of authentic dances of Spain in which she has appeared in all of the capitals of South America where she has been proclaimed a truly great artist and a woman of exceeding beauty and charm. The great dancer will be gorgeously costumed and delightfully sweet music will be furnished by the accompaniment of Jeronimo Villalino, Flamenco guitarist. These artists are of exceptional merit and all are cordially invited to take advantage of the opportunity to enjoy their performance at the Palm Springs Woman's Club on Monday, November sixth at three o'clock. The public will be admitted by guest card or admission of $1.20 which includes the federal tax.

Annual Harvest Ball Next Event at Shadow Mountain

The big event next week-end at Shadow Mountain Club will be the Second Annual Harvest Moon Ball. This event inaugurated last year aroused widespread enthusiasm and this year's Ball is expected to top it both in attendance and in fun. Wear your denims or gingham for this event and get in one the apple bobbin'.

Last Sunday afternoon a gay company of youthful spooks, Indians, Pirates, Hula Girls—even a Flying Saucer!—and one very animated Skeleton, descended upon Palm Desert's swank Shadow Mountain Club and took over for the day. The occasion was the inauguration of a brand new youth activity program at the Club. It turned out to be quite a shindig for the small fry. With the Hallowe'en theme as a motif, the youngsters and teenagers spent the entire afternoon and early evening in the spotlight with swimming, diving, water carnival, land circus, playground games and weiner roast. They featured a costume parade and wound up the busy day with movies.

It was all part of an earnest desire of Cliff Henderson's to make of the Shadow Mountain Club a truly family club with attractions for all members of the family.

A pen and pencil set was given to each winner in the costume parade. The winners were: Pamela Peck, dressed Hawaiian style; John Vallette, a very lively skeleton; Marlo Kennedy, Indian; Dennis also copped the grand prize for his original costume so his pen and pencil set was gleaming gold. Honorable Mention went to Sidney Stokes, a Ghost and to John McCoy as a Pirate, with Carol Carr included as a Hula girl.

For adult members of the club the week-end highlight was the Second Annual Sportsmen's Dinner, served to an enthusiastic crowd on Saturday evening. It was one of those affairs where you could get a duck dinner—by bringing the duck.

Among the gay revelers over the week-end Villagers Gail Snell, Peggie Christie, Jean Parker and Catherine Wagner who were guests of Cliff Henderson. Cliff also hosted Art Ryan of the Los Angeles Times.

The Club was the scene, last Monday, of a "Sneak Day" for 33 members of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity of UCLA. The frolicking Bruins stayed for lunch and dinner and spent much of their time in the pool.

Social ACTIVITIES

Hepcats Rally at Youth Center for Gay Evening of Hallowe'en Events

Hepcats replaced Hallowe'en cats Saturday night at the Youth Center when some 80 teen-agers were entertained by the Guadalajara trio from the Doll House and Miss Virginia Dew of the Chi Chi.

It was the Youth Center's Hallowe'en party and was a thorough success. The trio's rendition of "Spanish Mule Train" brought down the house and Miss Dew sang "Yours" and "On the Sunny Side of the Street" with Rudy at the piano.

The Chi Chi graced the refreshment table with pastries done up in true Hallowe'en style and Mrs. Bob Bennett's chile con carne drew great praise. Nobody went without a cupful of Diane Weatherford's "witches brew" and there was ice cream for all.

The evening was spent in dancing, basketball, badminton and table tennis.

The Youth Council will meet tomorrow evening to plan for more such good times.

Navy Film Shown to High School Students

Palm Springs high school students last week viewed a film entitled "Stay in School" being shown in county high schools by the Navy.

The film is being shown in conjunction with the Navy's plan of urging youth to complete its education before contemplating careers. From here the film goes to Indio.

Repeat Vows On Silver Anniversary

Vows first received on October 26, 1925, were repeated by Mr. and Mrs. Cyperan LaFrance, El Segundo road, last Thursday when they observed their 25th wedding anniversary.

At Our Lady of Solitude church, the Rev. Michael O'Connor repeated the marriage service which had united them in New Bedford, Mass., a quarter century ago. They were attended this time by Mr. and Mrs. Louise LaFrance and their three children and a grandson were present. The children are Louis, Gene and Annette and the grandson is Michael.

Annette sang a solo at the ceremony as did Joe Wood, the latter accompanied by Larry Sitter. A wedding breakfast at La Cita followed the ceremony.

Palm Desert Sunbeams

By EDITH EDDY WARD

The Trezevant home, which has just been completed in the Shadow Mountain Estates area was the scene Sunday of a home dedication ceremony which was attended by some three hundred guests. The Trezevants who are noted for their sumptuous entertaining were the perfect hosts for so large a gathering—providing the music of Marmolejo Trio who played music in the Spanish manner throughout the afternoon in their spacious patio. The house was bedecked with beautiful floral arrangements, presented by their many friends for the occasion. All this combined with the elements of nature in the form of a rose desert sunset contributed to a perfect climax for the afternoon's pleasure. A very special feature of the afternoon was the dedication of the Trezevant home to Christian precepts by Dr. John Robertson McCartney in which he used the symbolic ceremony of the candle, fire, water, salt and bread. This dedication was most impressive and unique. Among the many guests present for the home opening were the following: Mr. and Mrs. B. B. O'Dell, Mrs. Mildred Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Gernert, all of Los Angeles. Other guests who are known locally were the Slaters, the Torgersens, Hesslers, Joseph Kirks, Culvers, Carl Hendersons, Randall Hendersons, Cliff Henderson, the Bears, Ted Reeds, William Smiths, Herb Fosters, Jean Kincaids, the Mitchells, Kaplingers, Herb Pritzlaffs, Howard Holleys, Hydes, Judge and Mrs. Rouse, Dr. and Mrs. Powers, Dr. and Mrs. McKee, the Klausens, Andrews, Pearsons, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Del Lingo, Mrs. Germa, Don Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Archie MacKellar, Charles Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Link, Champagne punch and delicious Hors d'Oeuvres were served throughout the afternoon.

ANOTHER SOCIAL function the past week was the Annual Sportsman's dinner at Shadow Mountain Club. Roy Lindberg of San Fernando Valley hosted a large dinner and dancing group, serving his guests roast wild boar, which he had bagged at Catalina—also on the menu was baked white fish. The group included Mr. Lindberg's partner, Mrs. Mavis Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg, Elmer Swanney and Corinne Van Eaden, Mr. and Mrs.

Lee Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Krav, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Perry, daughter and son-in-law of the host, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Peck, and their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Tweedy Flowers of Playa del Rey and Mrs. Marion Campbell.

Mrs. George Berkey and her two children, Valentine and Geep have returned to their home in Oasis after spending some four months in Beverly Hills. Mr. Berkey remained at their desert home due to his many ranching enterprises. Their return to the desert was just in time for the children to enter into the hallowe'en celebration at the Shadow Mountain Club.

Joe Keim and Warren Wilson, also of Oasis, have left for a short trip to Mexico City. When asked the nature of their trip, they playfully suggested that their objective was to investigate Spanish Senoritas.

LAST SUNDAY many Shadow Mountain Club members and their families were seen around the Club pool enjoying the water exhibitions as well as the clowning. Sunday evening there was a youngster's hallowe'en carnival in charge of Dr. Paul Gerish, eminent youth activity director. There were contests scheduled for every minute for the small fry. First they scrambled for pennies at the bottom of the pool, and next were potato races, sack races, 3-legged races, etc. At 5:30 there was a treasure hunt followed by the hallowe'en costume parade. After careful consideration the judges awarded 15 beautiful prizes for the best costumes in the various age groups.

Mrs. R. F. Grottinger, 450 Avenida Olanocha, left via SP Sunset Limited Wednesday night for Pensacola, Fla. to visit her son, Dr. J. S. Grottinger and family.

Mouseburger Tournaments Now Month Old

The Mouseburger Tournaments at the Racquet Club are celebrating their one-month anniversary. Every Monday night these round robin sessions are played, and each week more spectators gather to kibitz and applaud. Last Monday Harry Plymire and Mousie Powell ran first. Jerry Nathanson and Roland Vaile were runner-ups. Field included Dr. Bernard Poliak who played with Hank Norman, Sammy Sonntag and George Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. Ord Preston from La Jolla, Gus Kettmann and Annette Stevens, Desi Arnaz and Mark Stevens, and Lee Kalbert and Bill Dunkerley.

Colorful Feature To Publicize Village

A colorful, illustrated feature story about Palm Springs will appear in the San Francisco Chronicle Sunday morning.

Jackson Home Scene of Gala Family Reunion

When Pilot J. R. Jackson of Panagra Air Lines in Lima, Peru, and Mrs. Jackson, decided to fly up to Palm Springs to visit Pilot Jackson's mother, Mrs. Mildred Jackson, last weekend, they precipitated a gala reunion of family and friends at the local Prescott drive homestead. Another son, Lieutenant Francis E. Jackson, stationed in Sherman, Texas; Daughter Diane Jackson, attending St. Mary's academy in Los Angeles, and Localite Son Kenneth Jackson joined the festivities. Unable to complete by her presence the reunion of Local Realtor Jackson's five children, Mrs. Lawrence Cooley of Los Angeles sent her three-year-old daughter to the family conclave as a popular representative.

Captain Keyo Snook accompanied Son Francis from Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Schroeder of Del Mar; Mr. and Mrs. William Davidson of Pomona; Mrs. Lucille Pearce of San Bernardino and Toby English of Los Angeles all drove down for the occasion. Joining also in the reunion festivities were Villagers Angela and Mrs. Jack E. Trott, Mrs. Eileen Brennan, Mrs. Eleanor Hall, Mr. ta Noyes, Miss Shirley Hegstead.

Mrs. Connie DeVine, wife of the local grocer, was operated on yesterday in Alta Vista hospital in Pasadena. Mr. DeVine expects her return next week.

Sand Doin's

Inasmuch as neither doings, dunes, nor your "sandcomber" are new to the desert; let's dispense with formal introductions and just get better acquainted with familiar faces and places.

Back again at their desert ranch (dates and grapes) are popular Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reichel, whose roamin' noses led them to Honolulu, the Bahamas, Canada, and Lake Tahoe where they witnessed a rather impromptu reunion of Palm Springs.

At his new "Time Shop" in Rancho Mirage, after a year in Phoenix, is L. A. Davis, watchmaker and incidentally, a guy with all kinds of time! Know from experience Dave's an expert watch repairman but he's the only one I know of who DELIBERATELY drives customers away; he just shrugs his shoulders and says that's part of his business, or rather his other business—Bluebird Cab. Everything comes to him who waits—even a taxi (at last) to stranded Rancho Mirage-Cathedral City-Palm Desert-ites.

Hosting a dinner party at Shadow Mountain Club Saturday night were Rancho Mirage home owners, the H. F. Whittles of Beverly Hills and the investment company of the same name. Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. John Wood (general agent for Farmer's Insurance) of Beverly Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Torrance Daddis (realtor) of Encino, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Perkins of Santa Monica.

In her first reappearance on the desert since the war closed her beauty shop in the El Mirador, Elora Kenyon is now operating the Cathedral Beauty Shop. Overheard a sarcastic male belittling the fairer sex with the remark, "In the El Mirador days Elora's hairdressing sure made some of those women beautiful over the week-end." This name is being withheld for obvious reasons.

Garth B. Jones, popular ex-villager and reporter with the LImelight (excuse please) just a year ago, was down over the weekend to visit his parents, the Porter Jones, in their new Panorama Ranch home. Understand Garth is in charge of publicity and advertising at the main LA office of the Security First National Bank.

Dorothy Roberts and sister, Dottie Todd, (of the popular entertainers—the Todds and Michael Barton—formerly with Shadow Mountain Club) have a new song out called, "Enchanted," (published by Shapiro and Bernstein). Dottie was considered by the men around SMC to be rather enchanting herself! Another way up on the ladder, is Rancho Mirage's Bill Daniels, a director of photography and former academy award winner, who is presently doing a "factual" called "Lights Out" using blind veterans at Valley Forge.

Prominent Attorney Calloway of Los Angeles has opened his new Palm Desert home for which he has plans for expansion. His busy law practice will be interspersed with enjoyable desert week-ends. There's a popular and effective type of health insurance!

An interesting foursome seen dining included Jan King, Dave Culver, with Chili and Mary Grace Walsh. Chili is former owner of the La Rams; he and lovely Mary Grace were guesting at Firecliff Lodge. Jan King, effervescent as ever, drove down from Spokane in her new Nash Rambler which she calls "Baby Blue." Jan's enthusiasm is still evidenced by endless names and adjectives for everything. Deborah Culver was down to spend another weekend in his lovely Rancho Mirage home and oversee his interests as one of the developers of Rancho Mirage.

Perhaps the most eminent vacationer on the desert this past week was General Osborne A. Pearson who, with his wife, enjoyed the hospitality of Galen and Margo Drury at their ranch in Rancho Mirage. General Pearson is the First Assistant Postmaster General with headquarters, of course, in Washington, D. C. Seems the General is formerly of Oakland where his friend, Dr. Drury, practices oral surgery. The Drurys spend as much time as possible at their desert home over which General and Mrs. Pearson are most enthusiastic.

A lighter, but no less important subject is the Halloween doin's of the small fry of Rancho Mirage. Michael, Kelvin and Steven Hodel (sons of screenwriter, Dorothy Hodel) packed their Halloween costumes with their lunches Tuesday in honor of the big school at Cathedral City. They were disguised as a bat, the Indian chief Cochise, and Gorgonzola George, the wrestler. Steven Brown (son of motion picture director and writer, Rowland Brown) was a Schmo. Prizes for the best costumes went to David Gordon, a particularly cuddlesome and toothsome little pink pig, and Ardyas Gunn as a beautiful little witch of the sort not usually associated with Halloween. In the evening Evelyn Scott helped her daughters, Linda, Barbara and Cheryl Jo, serve as hostesses at their very own party. A Weiner and marshmallow roast and trick-and-treat through the neighborhood won't be forgotten by the younger set.

Famed Artists Interested Here

Famed artist-inventor C. C. Cristodoro is proud of his title of godfather to New Villager Marcia Babcock, month-old daughter of Artists Paul and Alberta Babcock, local residents. Incidentally, Cristodoro is "father" of the complete cast of characters, and a new type of puppetry animation to be introduced in Walt Disney's picture in the making.

Cristodoro's own handcarved puppets will make their debut, via revolutionary substage manipulation, in the coming Disney epic, based on pioneer railroad days of '49. With his many-jointed, realistic figures, the new Disney story can be photographed consecutively, without the painstaking "stop shot" methods previously employed in all animated cartoon pictures.

... LEGALIZED TEMPTATION.

(Paid Political Announcement)

Last week, Councilman Jerry Nathanson sed his piece in The NEWS about his indorsement of legalized gamblin' in California.—Purty soon Proposition No. 6 will be put up to the voters. "To be or not to be," as Bill Shakespeare once sed, Everybody has a little streak in his nature what he likes to woo Lady Luck if he gits a chanst. If Pa'm Springs had a one-arm handit in all th' shops, th' workin' man wouldn't bring his wife any "take home" money, but if he did kick in, th' ol' lady would lose it th' next day in handy slot machines, er sumpin'. One of our leadin' & charitable citizens, property owners—a solid business man sez: "Pa'm Springs bein' a resort & playground fer overly rich tourists an' visitors, should have one or two nice quiet little spots on th' underskirts a town whar only them that kin afford to lose (if they should) would be eligible patrons. Local workmen an' others that cannot afford to take a chanst, would not be welcome. If th' powers to be would let down th' bars jist a notch or two durin' th' height a th' seezin' it would make a whale of a difference in business receipts in our fair city. This is one seezin whar th' merchants an' other places a business could use a few extra shekles. Pa'm Springs does not offer enuff entertainment.

Auxiliary Tea Planned For Nov. 10

Annual Bridge and Canasta Tea of American Legion Auxiliary will be held November 10 at 2 p. m. at the Desert Inn, which is donating the space for this worthy cause. The occasion is in honor of Armistice Day and the proceeds will go to rehabilitation for veterans and the Auxiliary's welfare fund for veterans' widows and orphans.

Tickets are now available to the public as well as Auxiliary members, and may be purchased at the Desert Inn or from any Auxiliary members.

Members of the committee are: Mrs. J. J. (Glady) Follansbee, chairman; Mesdames Cora Cornell, Thomas F. Kiely, Harold Leenan, Albert H. Renier, Mildred Jackson, Charles Henderson, Donald Floan and Miss Inah Peterson.

Mrs. Follansbee expressed the hope there will be a large attendance, for now, since the war in Korea, there is more need than ever for help for veterans' families.

Wonder Palms Steak Ride Season Begun

When its moonlight on the desert, its steak ride time at Wonder Palms!

One of the first steak rides of the season was held this week for guests of Wonder Palms Hotel and Guest Ranch. The following group donned their western wear and fancy straw hats and hopped in a hay wagon for a ride over the sand dunes singing western songs to the accompaniment of Wonder Palms' own Tex Kidwell. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Travis, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hoisch, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kingsley, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gould, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Brown, all Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thorpe, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. John Holloway, honeymooners from Pasadena; and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Joseph, Chicago. Among the guests enjoying the festive buffet luncheon on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. George P. Vierheller (the heads the famous St. Louis Zoo and recently assisted in filming the short "Fun at the Zoo", which is playing in the theaters now); Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hageman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warner, who are having an extended stay at Wonder Palms; their daughter, Mrs. Nathan Hiatt and Mr. and Mrs. Charles LeMaire, wardrobe director at 20th Century.

HONEYMOONING HERE

Perfection of sunbathing weather is being enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kean of Grosse Point, Michigan, who are honeymooning at the Desert Inn. Mrs. Kean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. O'Brien of Detroit, annual winter visitors to the Inn.

Paul Gerrish New SMC Youth Guide

The latest addition to the staff of Shadow Mountain Club, in line with Cliff Henderson's policy of making the Club a real family club, is Dr. Paul Gerrish, Ph.D., who took over last Sunday as youth activity director.

Dr. Gerrish is on the faculty of Pasadena City College where he teaches physical education. He was for thirteen years youth activity director of the Hotel del Coronado at San Diego, leaving there to become affiliated with the Balboa Bay Club when it was founded three years ago.

Before coming to the West Coast, Dr. Gerrish served on the faculty of Harvard University and of Teachers College of Columbia University where he directed the training of swimming coaches and physical education instructors. He has also served on the faculty of the University of California at Santa Barbara.

Dr. Gerrish will instruct in swimming and diving both in classes and in private lessons at the Shadow Mountain Club. He is one of the three Ph.D.'s on the West Coast to win his doctorate in the field of physical education.

Shower Honors Miss Kate Maze

A pre-nuptial shower for Miss Kate Maze, who will wed Richard Dent of Desert Hot Springs November 7, was given Tuesday evening by fellow staff-members of Palm Springs Department and Hardware at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wood, 1572 North Riverside drive. Co-hosts with the Woods were Mr. and Mrs. Murray Barrick.

Other Villagers attending the party included Mrs. Helen Allen,

Palm Springs Biltmore to Open for New Season Today

Palm Springs Biltmore reopens for the season today with many celebrities on the guest list. Among them is Jimmy McHugh, who will host a large party over the week-end. McHugh, who gained national fame by bringing the A.A.U. swim meets to Los Angeles, will present another of his famous swim shows on Sunday, November 19th. While he is sojourning at the hotel this week-end he will complete plans with Manager Lloyd Lemmon and owner Sam Levin for the November 19th swim show.

Another well-known name in show business who is registered at the Biltmore this week-end is Niles T. Grandlund, more generally known in the entertainment world as N.T.G. He will shoot pictures for his television show which will be shown next week over the Mutual Network television station KTSN, Channel 2.

Innovations added to the beautiful hotel grounds include a new Garden Room which will feature dancing and entertainment, and a miniature putting course adjoining the tennis courts.

The management of the Palm Springs Biltmore extends an invitation to residents of Palm Springs and the desert area to visit the Biltmore for dinner, cocktails or just a pleasant tour of the grounds.

Prieto's Aim Puts Indians In 3-Way League Lead Tie

Conversion Is Margin in Tight Game

The reliable toe of End Oscar Prieto kicked Palm Springs fourth conversion of the season Friday night at Perris to give the Indians their third straight victory. Oscar and the Indians edged the Panthers by a 7-6 count.

The win threw the RCL race into a three-way tie for top honors—San Jacinto, Hemet and Palm Springs each have three wins and a loss.

THE REDSKINS got off to a good start at Perris when Prieto recovered a fumble on the second play of the game and Palm Springs began to march. With Charlie Black and Dearth Davis carrying, the Indians moved 51 yards in five plays to the Perris five yard line. Two plays netted three yards and then Palm Springs was penalized back to the seven for an illegal formation. Davis was stopped and Johnny Black's fourth down pass was incomplete.

From there the first half became a mass of fumbles for the Indians and the Panthers. Palm Springs fumbled inside the Perris 20 and once again the next time they received the ball. All told, the locals dropped the pigskin five times and Perris dropped it four.

As the second half began, Palm Springs began their 70-yard march. Davis and the Black brothers toted the ball during the march and Bill Spencer scored from the one with a run around right end. Reliable Prieto, who has missed but once this year, kicked the all-important conversion.

IN THE FINAL PERIOD Perris caught fire when Walt Shull began passing with more success. Two throws to Don Weischel gave Perris a first down on the six. The Redskins line held for three plays but on fourth down, Quarterback Don Webb took a plunge over for the score.

Although not up to their Hemet performance, the Indian linemen held the Panthers to 46 net yards on the ground. Charlie Black was again the Redskins' stand-out, gaining 121 net yards running and stopping Panther runners with his tackling.

Hemet Knocks Over San Jac In Surprise Game of Week

A Hemet team which looked only fair in a losing effort here two weeks ago, last week did what no other football club has been able to do for two years. They upset the San Jacinto Tigers, 7 to 6.

It was a personal triumph for Coach Roy Cooper and for his Bulldogs who weren't supposed to have a chance when Uncle Sam summoned star Fullback Webb Ross and others.

HEMET MOVES to Elsinore tonight and should come home with their fourth league victory. Elsinore was topped last week by a hitherto winless Banning squad, 35 to 0.

Banning moves down to the Date Bowl to test the battered Arabs who haven't won a game since their opener against Palm Springs. Coachella sees a ray of hope in the return of Pete Salcido, the speedy "Spanish Scooter" who did so much damage to the Indians.

PERRIS WILL TRAVEL to San Jacinto to attempt to duplicate the feat of Hemet last week. The strong Panther squad has almost lost its title hopes with two losses already on its record, but they may play an important role as spoilers for the remainder of the season.

At home, the Indians play host to Banning which copied its first win last week over Coachella, 20 to 0. Although the Cougars have lost three league games, their opponents have only scored eight more points than Beaumont in their four games.

Three dozen city league basketballers continued their twice-a-week workouts at the high school gymnasium this week and last night concluded their second week of practice.

Present plans call for a four-week practice period before league play begins. City recreation director Howard Haddock continued to emphasize that more players, managers and team sponsors are needed. He guarantees that everyone who comes out will be able to play on a team.

Some of the tentative teams are Village Market, Globe Trotters, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Youth Center and Rudy's Gardeners. "We need at least

SUN SPORTS IDEALIGHTS

By GUS STEVENS

A lot of local sports fans missed a good bet Sunday afternoon by staying away in droves from the Western Week radio at the Polo Grounds. The show was complete with races, roping and whatever else a rodeo needs to be a success.

Less than 500 people helped deaden the echoes in the stands across the loud speaker booth. It was a good show—fast-moving and over before dark. Admission was free to immunity but button holders.

What's hard to understand is that more people, a tremendous crowd of 639, paid a dollar and a quarter the day before to witness a sluggish, sloppy exhibition baseball game which had a great deal less to offer than was advertised.

People are funny. EVIDENTLY the Palm Springs Indians believe in giving fans their money's worth in football games. No top-sided games for them.

In all four league contests the Indians final score has never been more than six points away from their opponents. In the first one, a contest even closer than the score indicates, Coachella racked up 13 to stubborn Palm Springs 7. Next, Palm Springs squeaked by Banning, 15 to 13; Hemet, 7 to 0, and last week, Perris, 7 to 6. How close can you get?

The locals have won three out of four and yet have totaled only four more points than their opponents.

With its first win under its belt, Beaumont might be up on its hind legs tonight at the Palm Springs high stadium. Fresh from a 20-20 win over ailing Coachella, the Cougars boast a snappy new-ly-found passing attack.

But if Coach Ballagh keeps the Redskins as high as he has the past three weeks, they should carry their fourth consecutive scalp to the showers with them. Yep, the Indians will take it tonight if they don't make the mistake of looking too far past the tough Cougars at a still tougher Tiger next week. Looking two weeks ahead has spelled disaster for better clubs than ours.

VISITORS and locals are continuing to heap praise on Palm Springs' fine sports facilities at the Polo Grounds. Several players from Bob Lemon's All-Stars and the Kansas City Royals were enthusiastic about the ball park. They said the dugout and shower room facilities compared favorably to any most of them had ever seen in league parks.

The stands were neat as a pin and the press box admirably suited for roominess, observation, writing and all around cleanliness. The infield looked like the top of a pool table.

Sunday the rodeo arena was equally as spotless. The stands had been cleaned until they shined and the turf was raked smooth as a baby's cheek before the first event got underway.

Conditions like these make for a good impression on visitors and participating athletes. The facilities cost money but they should pay off someday by making Palm Springs a sports mecca.

Lemon All-Stars Trim Paige-less K.C. Royals, 9-3

A sparse gathering of 639 fans watched Bob Lemon's All-Stars coast to a lazy 9-3 win over the Kansas City Royals at the Polo Grounds Saturday afternoon.

The Royals sorely missed the services of their ace, Satchel Paige, who four days before accepted a lucrative offer to pitch a series of Hawaii exhibition games. The club used three other hurlers in a vain effort to stop the onslaught of All-Star hits.

FANS DID NOT LEARN of Paige's failure to appear until a few minutes before the game got underway. The public address system announced his absence and two filed to the exits to get their $1.25 back.

As it was, All-Star sluggers sprayed 14 hits over the carefully manicured turf. Bob Sturgeon of Los Angeles and Del Crandall of the Boston Braves led the attack with two doubles and a single each.

THE FIFTH INNING was the big one for the All-Stars. Harry Minor got one on an error, Crandall hit one of his extra base blows and Jess Flores, Chuck Stevens, Irv Noren and Sturgeon singled for a five-run outburst. Sturgeon replaced Ray Boone at second after the Cleveland star had been hit on the wrist by a pitched ball in the first frame. It was later reported that Boone suffered a broken wrist.

Lemon led his club for the first three innings before retiring in favor of Jess Flores and later Jack Paepke. The year's leading major league hurler was touched for two hits and one unearned run. He stuck around long enough to receive credit for the win.

Afterthought Department—Coach Charlie Ballagh got his football playing experience at Central Michigan college. After leaving school, he played football for a time with the Air Corps at Tucson, Arizona and at other bases... Dearth Davis, Indian half back, is leading Palm Springs high in points scored with only 12 in league play. Workhorse Charlie Black has rolled to one TD and a safety for eight... The Riverside Enterprise seems to think that of the three current leaders in the RCL race, Palm Springs has the easiest schedule ahead of them. Beaumont, San Jacinto and Elsinore don't figure to be opposition for anybody to cast in on.

Indians to Clash With Beaumont Cougars Tonight

Palm Springs will face a resurgent Beaumont even tonight at the high school field at 8 o'clock. Winless in their first three league outings, the Cougars looked like a breath to Coach Charlie Ballagh's Indians until they swarmed over Coachella last week, 20 to 0.

Coachella handed Palm Springs its only league loss in the opening game here. Since then, however, the Indians have won three straight to become part of a three-way tie for first place.

The locals have defeated Banning, Hemet and Perris and figure to start the same eleven that has proved to be a winning combination for Ballagh.

Chisox Battery Men Will Train At Polo Grounds

Portions of the American League Chicago White Sox will definitely train for a two-week period at Palm Springs' Polo Grounds, Frank Lane, business manager of the Chisox revealed this week.

Pitchers and catchers of the Sox will begin work here Feb. 14 and continue through the 28th. Apparently, there will be no conflict with the Seattle training schedule which probably will not begin before March 1st. Next year's Coast League training rules may dictate that no club can start practice before that date.

Therefore, barring schedule changes, Palm Springs will have no trouble playing host to two top flight ball clubs this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hiatt of Pomona were visitors for a week in Palm Springs.

FOOTBALL FANS' CORNER

Dick Dunkel's COLLEGE FOOTBALL POWER INDEX

EXPLANATION: The Power Index provides a direct comparison of the relative strength of any two teams for this season to date. Thus, a 50.0 team has been 10 scoring points stronger than a 40.0 team on their comparative records, in which scoring margin has been weighed against strength of opposition. This does not necessarily mean that a 50.0 team should defeat a 40.0 team by exactly 10 points in the future. Teams rarely follow past performance that closely. The Dunkel system correlates records of all college teams and was started in 1929.

Mrs. Pauline Self Succumbs After Long Ill Health

Last rites were said Tuesday for Mrs. Pauline Ward Self, well known Villager who succumbed Sunday morning at her home following a protracted illness.

The Rev. James H. Blackstone Jr. of Community church was in charge of the services.

MRS. SELF was long active in civic affairs here. She was a member of many organizations and active in charity work. She was president of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary.

Following a two-months visit to Texas this summer, where she visited her parents, brothers and sisters and friends, Mrs. Self's health declined and she was at Loma Linda hospital for three weeks before returning to her home 10 days ago.

She was a native of Henderson, Texas but she and Clarence R. Self, her husband, have lived here for the past 15 years. He is a building contractor.

SEVERAL MEMBERS of Mrs. Self's family were at her bedside Sunday morning. They were Mrs. J. O. Ward of Henderson, her mother, Mrs. Doris Odle of Port Arthur, Texas, a sister, and two brothers, Clifford Ward of Orange, Texas, and J. V. Holmes Dallas.

Other survivors are J. O. Ward, her father, and two other sisters, Miss Sara Ward and Mrs. P. O. Hughes. All of these survivors are living in Texas.

Mrs. Self's husband and her two daughters, Polly, 9, and Vicki, 4, were also present at her bedside. The Selfs live at 2185 Juniper Avenue.

The six pall bearers were all members of the local VFW post. They were Fred Stromborg, Dudley Clarke, Emil Knorr, Dean Fickell, Jacob Bryant and Frank Dwyer.

Wriefs and Sons were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Creeping Socialism is Here

By James Dorais
Is there such a thing as "creeping Socialism?"

Is the immense Washington bureaucracy stult through with subversives who, knowing that Americans would overwhelmingly reject Socialism at the polls, patiently toll away at a long-range program of creating a Socialistic State in small, easy stages?

Those who believe that creeping Socialism is a major issue of the times have a good deal of evidence to support their views. Examine, for example, the encroachment of Socialism in the field of housing.

The Federal Government entered into competition with the private building industry thirteen years ago, when Congress approved the Housing Act of 1937, which granted funds to construct barracks-type apartments for low-income tenants, and provide for annual Federal subsidies to take care of the inevitable huge operating losses.

THE ACT PROVIDED—and this is undoubtedly one of its longest selling points to Congress—that for each unit (apartment) of public housing built, an equivalent number of rooms of slum dwelling had to be removed.

Housing Authorities were established locally to promote and administer the projects. Although the expenses of the local bureaucracy thus begotten are paid with Federal funds, State legislation was necessary to create the Authorities. The Washington planners were confident that most States would not resist the lure of Federal "gifts", and sure enough, 43 States, including

Meet Your Girl Scouts

Girl Scouts' Open House Monday night was the first local observance of National Girl Scout Week. Displays of local Girl Scouts' work, plus free refreshments and cookies made by the Scouts were major attractions at the event. The Girl Scouts, one of Palm Springs most active organizations, had a large group of parents inspect the various troop and individual projects on display. Parent participation encourages the youngsters in the rest of the year's activities.

Attention of Riverside County Girl Scout leaders and former Girl Scouts has been focused on the 25 years of Scouting in this area since the recent announcement that Riverside will once again be host city for the Regional Girl Scout Conference from Nov. 7-9.

It was 25 years ago that Riverside was headquarters city for the first conference of the region which lasted 3 days. Mrs. A. B. West, commissioner then, opened her home at 6116 Hawarden Drive, to the delegates. 25 were expected and 100 came. The spacious gardens of the West estate were the campgrounds.

Twenty-five years ago there were 157 Scouts in the local membership including Brownies.

Church Building Completed Soon

Work has been resumed on the new Community church building at Palm Desert. Carl Henderson, chairman of the building committee said this week. Early completion of the structure, which is already in use, is planned.

Desert stone is being assembled for the outside facing of the church and insulation for warmth in winter and coolness in summer, installed.

A study and office for the pastor, Dr. J. R. Macartney, is being added.

Science Society Now Designated As First Church

Word was received this week by members of the Christian Science Society of Palm Springs that they are now the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Palm Springs.

Recognition of the local society as the First Church was made by The Mother Church in Boston, Massachusetts.

Starting last Wednesday all services will be held at the Woman's Clubhouse, 314 South Cahulla road. Sunday school classes, which have been held at the church building on Ocotillo road, will also be held at the Woman's clubhouse. The change was made because of increased church activities.

The reading room is located downstairs in The Center.

Cahulla Rd. The Reading Room located downstairs in Colburn Center is open daily, except Sundays and holidays from 12 to 4.

CRISTIAN SCIENCE TOPIC 'ADAM AND FALLER MAN'

"Adam and Faller Man" will be the Sunday Lesson-Sermon subject in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text, chosen from Hosea, reads, "O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity." According to John's Gospel, when the disciples saw the man that was blind, they said unto Jesus, "Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents; but that he was manifest in him. . . . And he anointed him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam. . . . He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation."

Joseph Dirnberger Is Taken by Death

Joseph Dirnberger, resident of Palm Springs for the past six years, succumbed at his home, 435 Andreas road, last week at the age of 63. He had been in ill health for ten years.

Funeral services were said at Our Lady of Solitude, Catholic church, at 10 a.m. Monday with interment following at Palm Springs cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Bernardino and five sons and five daughters.

The children are Mrs. John Adams, San Francisco; Mrs.

A MILLION VOTERS

have ALREADY named Edmund G. (PAT) BROWN

the leading candidate for ATTORNEY GENERAL

THE RECORD
Official June Primary figures show Pat Brown polled a total of nearly One Million Votes on the Democratic and Republican tickets—138,124 MORE VOTES than the runner-up—his present opponent.

THE FACTS
Pat Brown is: FIRST CHOICE in ALL of the 58 counties of California on the Democratic ticket over his present opponent! FIRST CHOICE in 26 counties on the Republican ticket—3 MORE counties than his opponent carried! FIRST CHOICE in 38 counties with the HIGHEST COMBINED POPULAR VOTE on the Republican and Democratic tickets!

THE REASONS
The people have made Pat Brown the LEADING CANDIDATE for Attorney General because he is the ONLY candidate with a record of

EXPERIENCE and ACCOMPLISHMENT
in elective public office. His duties as District Attorney of San Francisco, his vigorous fight against organized crime, his known capacity for cooperation with local peace officers, and his vigilant awareness of the pressing need to protect the public against war-spawned racketeers, make him the only QUALIFIED candidate for Attorney General.

LET'S FINISH THE JOB!

LET'S MAKE IT A LANDSLIDE!

Elect Pat BROWN ATTORNEY GENERAL

Controversial Film Viewed by Civic Leaders

Civic, church and school organization leaders were guests last Saturday at the Plaza in a special showing of the film, "The Next Voice You Hear."

The film, which portrays the voice of God, has been the subject of much discussion among clergymen in the past few weeks.

It opened to the public at the Plaza last night.

James Cooper, Minneapolis, Mrs. John Suenneley, Joseph Jr. and Gene of Salton Sea air base, Leo, Jerome and Johnny of Palm Springs.

The Rev. Michael O'Connor of Our Lady of Solitude, read the rites.

CHARLES I. SCHOTTLAND, State director, Social Welfare—"Proposition No. 6 is a vicious measure contrary to all modern concepts of social legislation."

YES ON 3

(Political Advertisement) (Political Advertisement)

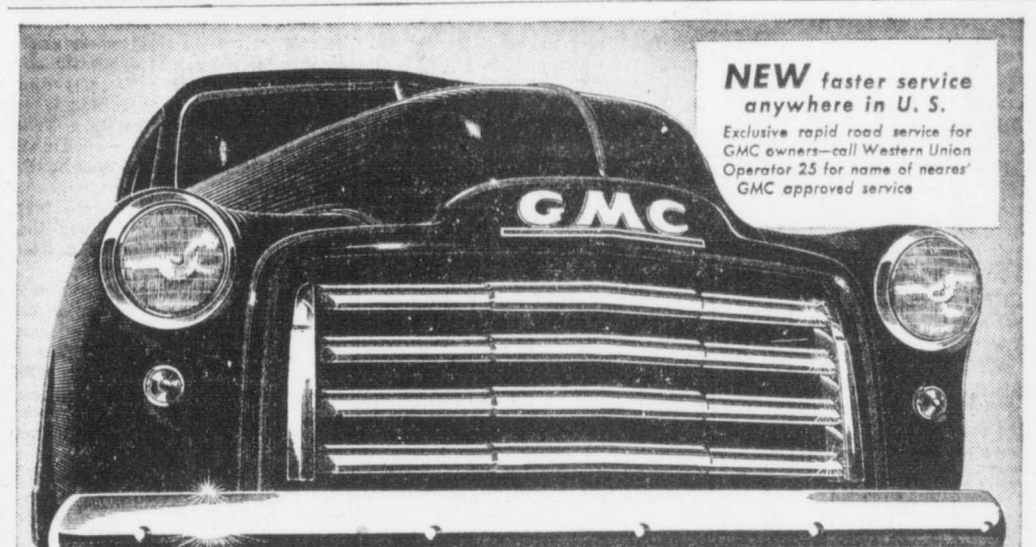

Why you should VOTE YES on No. 11

This ballot proposition corrects a defect in the law, to make it possible for an owner of land registered under the Land Title (Torrens) Act to withdraw it if he wishes to do so. There is now no way to do this.

The measure was passed unanimously by the State Legislature and signed by the Governor, in answer to the plea of many distressed property owners. Proposition 11 will save taxpayers hundreds of thousands a year, by simplifying the work of County Records, whose association has endorsed it. Proposition 11 also has been endorsed by scores of civic, labor, and business organizations, and so far as we know has been opposed by none.

City Building Total Almost Half Million

47 Permits Issued
In October, 1950
Far Ahead of 1949

Building in Palm Springs in October totaled $471,085, P. M. Swart's city building office, reported yesterday.

Ten new homes and three commercial buildings accounted for three-fourths of the total while ten more pools added another sizeable sum. In all, 47 permits were issued.

In October, 1949, 46 permits totalling $296,160, were issued.

BREAKDOWN of the figures revealed, according to Swart, that the 10 new homes are valued at $167,850; the three commercial buildings at $222,000; the ten pools at $40,500. Other permits issued in the month were 15 dwelling additions and alterations, $23,675; one two-unit apartment, $9,000; four apartment additions, $15,400; one hotel alteration, $3,000; two commercial additions, $3,520.

Total for the first ten months of 1950 is now $3,534,611, said Swart.

THE YEAR is now well ahead of 1949 at the corresponding time. Last year, as of November 1, total building for the year was $1,943,465.

Swart expects the year to top the $4,000,000 mark, one of the best since the three-year boom following the war.

Bonita Lodge Sale Announced

Sun-Glo Cleaners Planning Desert-Wide Business Drive

Desert-wide campaign to acquaint residents with the quality and type of laundry and cleaning service offered by Sun-Glo Cleaners Ltd., is launched today with this edition of the Desert Sun.

Owner Taft Abras who announced the campaign of "Let's get acquainted and you'll save money on your laundry and cleaning bills," said that a telephone call to the Palm Springs branch, 6444 will bring a representative of the concern promptly to the residence of anyone desiring information as to the methods of cleaning, laundry service and the cost to the customer.

"MOST IMPORTANT of all," declared Abras, "we have worked out a special rate for volume users of laundry and cleaning service for hotel and apartment houses."

Abras further pointed out that the cleaning plant operated by Sun-Glo Ltd., is the most modern west of Chicago using the latest scientific methods with college trained personnel in charge of various departments.

"OUR FACILITIES have been greatly enlarged," continued Abras, "and we know that we can save our clients money on laundry and cleaning service that can be used for other important necessities."

He added that the volume of business now being enjoyed by Sun-Glo's plant in Palm Springs is good but enlargement of facilities and personnel makes it possible now to extend the services.

"THE HIGHER HAPPINESS," written by Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, minister of the "National Radio Pulpit" over NBC, was selected by the Religious Book Club and is now a best seller. . . . Jean Herschell received a certificate from the Washington, D. C. medical society for "meritorious service to the medical profession" for his "Dr. Christian" radio series. . . . Alan Young has been signed for the title role in "Clarence," the Booth Tarkington picture shortly to be filmed. . . . Dick Haymes is auditioning for a straight dramatic adventure series for ABC. . . . And no less a personage than Mae West is considering an offer by a New York station for a five-week disc jockey series! We have now heard everything.

A commentator's statement that an eastern TV firm will buy the Walt Disney studios is being flatly denied by Disney execs. . . . Mutual has renewed the Sunday "Hashknife and Sleepy" radio series for another 13 weeks with Frank Martin and Barton Yarborough in lead roles. . . . Tex Williams and NBC are still dickering over terms for a 15-minute five-week air show. . . . Gene Fowler may soon be on NBC with his own air show titled, "Special Edition." . . . He'll do the stories. . . . Newsman Lowell Thomas is now in his 21st year.

With people already doing their Christmas shopping, it's time to point out that a fine gift for music lovers is an album of good music. . . . Columbia has come up with some exceptionally good albums for various types of people. . . . For instance, for that teen-ager in the family, there's an album on "Football Songs" in which Percy Faith's orchestra does a heap job on such standard favorites as "Notre Dame Victory March," "Eyes of Texas," "Rambling Wreck from Georgia Tech," "On Wisconsin," "Anchors Aweigh," "Far above Cayuga's Waters," and "On Army."

For the whole family there's a beautiful new album released featuring the organ music of Ken Griffies playing Christmas carols. . . . The carols include "Silent Night," "Joy to the World," "Adeste Fideles," "Little Town of Bethlehem."

Board Legalizes Airport Deal to End Controversy

Controversy over the sale of materials from the Thermal airport on orders of the county airport commission but without knowledge of supervisors was quieted this week when the county board legalized the deal.

They voted 4 to 1 to authorize Chairman Floyd Gilmore to enter into an agreement with the buyers who already have the material—gas and water pipe.

Ted Hannah, airport commissioner, sold the pipe two weeks ago and started a row in supervisory sessions. The board said he had no right to sell. Hannah then asked clarification of the law in order to learn from whom he took orders—the commission or supervisors.

Check of the law revealed divided authority and that he was responsible to both.

The agreement was then ordered to make the sale legal.

DeVorzon Puts In Busy Week

Jules DeVorzon of the Peter B. Sheptenko realty office reported several more sales this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Menard of the Hobby Shop have purchased a new home as have the George Wheelers. The latter is in the Racquet club area, at 150 Olivera.

Topping the week, said DeVorzon, he sold the home of another realtor, Dave Rose. It was purchased by Helene M. Stull and Hazel M. Gross, retired school teachers.

Overseas Mail Deadline Near

R. M. Gorham, postmaster, today reminded Villagers who intend to send Christmas packages overseas that they should be mailed by November 15 to insure arrival at their destination before December 25.

Packages mailed after November 15 may well be delayed beyond Christmas day in getting to their foreign address, he said.

Wittenbergs Show Amazing Machine

Mack and Rose Wittenberg, owners of the Palm Springs Sewing Machine store, have announced dealership this season of the amazing new Domestic sewing machine which is advertised as being able to hemstitch, mend, embroider, buttonhole, zigzag, gather, pleat, shirr, cord and quilt.

This is the third season for Palm Springs Sewing Machine store featuring sales and service on all makes of sewing machines and facilities for hemstitching, making buttonholes, covering buckles and buttons.

Another Date Firm Faces State Charge

Hickok Date Packing house of Coachella Valley was accused last week by the state of violating state marketing regulations.

The suit was filed in superior court Friday and asks that a $1000 penalty be levied. It was filed by A. A. Brock, agricultural director. It was the second filed in the area within recent weeks.

Council Given Reminder That Fly Time Again Here

Jack Schulman, representing the Hotel and Apartment Owners association, came to city council this week bearing gifts.

Asking that something be done about Palm Springs fly situation, he presented the group with a half dozen brand new fly swatters.

He said that Horace Heidt, owner of the Lone Palm hotel and also owner of a fly fogging machine, has offered to loan the fly killer to the city for a week. The machine effectively rid San Fernando of flies, said Schulman. The council accepted the apparatus.

City Manager Russell Rink said that everyone must do his part if Palm Springs is to combat the nuisance effectively. "Law, fertilizer, grass cuttings, garbage and the city dump all contribute to the nuisance," he said. He plans to distribute a fly prevention bulletin throughout the city within a few days.

California State Horsemen's association wrote Mayor Farrell and city council this week thanking them for the "courtesies and hospitalities" extended the group during last month's convention.

Two From Desert Bank at Session

O. A. Torgerson, Russell Denny and E. F. Pearson represented the Desert Bank at the October dinner meeting of the Independent Bankers association in Los Angeles.

J. Levell Lafferty of the Republic National Bank of Dallas, Texas, was the principal speaker and told the bankers that public relations was the number one problem in banking today.

"A successful corporation seeks to learn what the people want and what they don't want and then provides the kind of service acceptable to the majority," he said.

Calelectric Sale Is Approved

California Electric Power Co. this week received final approval of the Federal Power Commission for sale of $6,000,000 in securities to finance construction of its planned steam electric generating plant in San Bernardino and other new facilities.

The announcement confirmed temporary approval of the cash-raising move granted Calelectric two weeks ago.

Fashion Show Today Sets Off Five-Day Celebration of National Art Week in Village

Exhibit of Works of Desert Artists in the Center to Continue Until Sunday. Shops Participate in This Afternoon's Display of Latest in Designs

Fashion show luncheon will get underway in The Center this afternoon as a part of Palm Springs Allied Arts association five-day celebration of American Art week. Models will parade down the Town & Country stairway and through The Center.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, in these troubled times, the cultured side of our life must not be forgotten and the humdrum existence of everyday living must be leavened by the beauties that are all around us but too often ignored, and

WHEREAS, the week of November 1 to 7 is being observed across the land as National Art Week and because Palm Springs and the surrounding desert area contain many artists of note and artistic talent is abundant,

THEREFORE I, as mayor of Palm Springs, proclaim this Art Week in the Village and urge all to view the exhibits on display in the Center as a mark of appreciation for the cultural advantages we enjoy here in the desert.

Democrats Unite On Postmasters For Desert Area

Sidney L. Greenleaf was recommended for appointment as postmaster of a new office to be established soon at Ranch Mirage, at a meeting of the County Democratic Central committee in Riverside Monday.

At the same meeting the committee approved Mrs. Mildred H. Blair for the post of post mistress at Desert Hot Springs to succeed Postmaster Nicholas Manuia who has resigned.

Thelma Zulch, secretary of the committee, reported on the recommendations.

The committee wired its recommendations to Senator Sheridan Downey and to Turney Gratz, executive assistant to the chairman of the National Democratic Committee.

At least until it is finally approved, the Rancho Mirage post office will be a fourth class station. The postmaster General has estimated it will serve about 350 residents in summer and 800 in winter in the resort and date growing community.

Mrs. Blair was second on a list

County Provides Funds for Paving In Cathedral City

Cathedral City chamber of commerce request for aid in street paving from county funds was partially granted last week by supervisors.

They transferred $850 from the general fund on recommendation of Road Commissioner A. C. Keith to finance road mix paving of two streets and denied a request for funds for paving a third.

Streets to be paved are C street from Allen to Date Palm drive and Date Palm Drive from C street to Highway 111.

Request for paving of H street from Cathedral Canyon drive to Van Fleet, was denied.

Cathedral City chamber of commerce asked for the paving jobs in a petition forwarded the board in June.

Of three eligibles at Desert Hot Springs, Mrs. Zulch reported. Others were Horace Brown and Charles H. Marshall. All three candidates are residents of Desert Hot Springs.

450 Village Youngsters at Lions Club Hallowe'en Fete

Over 450 Palm Springs children remained safe but not necessarily sane at the Lions club Hallowe'en party Tuesday night. "Everybody had a bang-up, noisy time," said Lion president Charles McGann. "About 200 girls flocked to the Plaza theatre for the free show. In addition to the show everybody enjoyed refreshments. Most of the girls wore colorful costumes in a successful effort to scare their playmates."

The boys gathered at the Youth Center after dark and rode school busses to the high school gymnasium. "We didn't have to do much to entertain that bunch," said McGann. "They were full of enthusiasm. We gave them basketballs and other things to play with and they took over from there."

"We had plenty for the 250 kids to eat—cokes, apples, doughnuts and candy—more than they could hold. We still had a lot left over at 9:30 when the party broke up."

Some 30 members of the Lions helped supervise the two groups. "This year, as in the past," said Chief August Kettmann, "the party was a big help in holding vandalism to a minimum throughout the city. The Lions deserve no small credit for their community service."

In Palm Springs for a brief visit last week at Town and Desert apartments were Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Fisher of Los Angeles. He is the Buick representative there.

Civic Groups Pledge Help In JC Drive

Courtesy Program Wins Village-Wide Support is Report

Several civic organizations promised active support of the coming courtesy campaign last week when representatives of the groups met at a breakfast session. Present at the meeting were Lions, Rotarians, Hotel association members, chamber of commerce representatives and City Manager Russell Rink.

The different groups promised to handle Friendship Week and distribution of sunshine buttons and plaques to business firms, according to Al Stutz of the Jaycee.

At the regular Monday night Courtesy school meeting held at Frances Stevens, Dr. Jean Paul L. Peute again addressed the group. He analyzed personality traits and told how to use them to best advantage when meeting the public.

The group, a larger one than the week before, was also shown a film on personality. Over 50 persons were present at the session.

The third of a series of six classes will meet at Frances Stevens Monday night at 7. All interested persons, especially those who meet the public while at work, are invited to attend, said Stutz.

Village Teachers On Loyalty Oaths

"All Palm Springs Unified School District employees have responded wholeheartedly to the legislature's requirement that California state employees sign a loyalty oath," school superintendent A. G. Hoff announced this week.

Most of the teachers and other employees signed Oct. 23 at a school district meeting. Those who couldn't attend the session signed later.

Massive Bulldog Looks Over Council

City council was livened this week by the appearance of a massive English bulldog at the proceedings.

Although silent on most matters under consideration, he romped about the chambers enthusiastically whenever the large audience showed approval of a council action by applause.

"EASY DOES IT"
IF YOU FEEL that your hose don't give you the long wear you feel they should, then start giving them judicious care which will keep them going to a gallant old age.

Three pairs of hose purchased in the same color will give the same amount of wear as nine pairs, each in a different color. One stocking always wears much longer than the other, and it can be teamed with several other hose, if they're alike in color.

Remove all rings, bracelets and ornaments from hands and fingers before putting on hose. Smooth fingernails with an emery board, too, so that there can be no catches in the hose.

Always fasten garters in the double hem at the top of the hose.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
Chicken Yorkshire
(Serves 6)
2 cups diced, cooked chicken
2 eggs
1/2 cup drippings, melted
1 cup milk
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
Leftover gravy
Place chicken in bottom of greased casserole and set in moderate oven to heat. Beat eggs, drippings and milk together. Sift dry ingredients together and add to liquid ingredients. Beat until free from lumps. (Batter will be quite thin.) Pour over chicken and bake in a moderate (350 degree F.) oven for 30 minutes. Serve from baking dish with leftover gravy.

If the back garters come at the opening of the double hem, sew this up.

When drawing on the stocking, roll down to the toe and draw upwards easily. Before attaching the hose to garters, check seam line and straighten, if necessary.

For darning thread, choose a thread which is a little darker than the hose. The thread works in slightly lighter when you use it.

Your darning egg will be easier to use if one half of it is painted light, and the other dark. Use the dark side on light stockings and the light for dark stockings to enable you to see better.

NOT NICE

(A Short Story)
By RICHARD HILL WILKINSON

JERRY wasn't a fatalist, but when he arrived at the ranch and found that Jim, his older brother, had gone to Denver on an emergency business trip and would be away almost a week, he decided that something beyond human control was directing his destiny. Jim had left a note "Dear Jerry. Sorry this had to happen, but it couldn't be avoided. I'll be back on Monday, and on Tuesday we'll hold the wedding. Please be nice to Judy and her friends and family."

Ordinarily Jerry would have found it no chore at all to be nice to Judy. She was one of those girls

The scheme worked, despite Jerry's cold indifference to Jerry's flirting. A hurt look came into Judy's eyes.

You read about: the moment he laid eyes on her he decided it was going to be hard not being nice to her. Before the first day had passed he wholeheartedly cursed Jim for insisting that he come down for the wedding.

"Lord!" he thought, "after they're married I'll have to get out of the country. I wouldn't have a moment's peace, knowing she was available as a sister-in-law."

Jerry's annoyance at Jim presently gave way to self-pity. He had promised himself during the first hour of conversation with Judy that he would remain immune to her charms. This resolution vanished at about the same time the sun dissipated the dew next morning. It was then that he decided Fate had taken a hand, was giving him a rotten deal. For Jerry suddenly knew that he loved Judy, that she was the only girl in the world who could ever make him happy.

It was torture being with her, trying to be nice as per Jim's request, and yet at the same time maintain his equilibrium. Judy didn't help. She didn't exactly flirt, but on the other hand she didn't act like a girl who in a week's time would be Mrs. Somebody else.

An alarming thought flashed across Jerry's mind. Suppose she felt toward him as he felt toward her? Suppose Fate was handing her a rotten deal, too? Suppose she had believed, sincerely, that she loved Jim, but now that she had met Jerry—well, it might be one of those things, you know.

In this case, Jerry decided, she would look to him for deliverance. Whatever happened he would have to assume the responsibility. He was the man. He must be masterful.

Jerry could only think of one way of being masterful. It was an old gag, but it usually worked. He must profess interest in another. Who? Julia Walters, of course.

Julia was to be one of Judy's bridesmaids. She wasn't bad looking, either. Jerry began promoting her.

It might have worked out, save for one thing. Julia didn't welcome Jerry's attentions. Either she guessed at his purpose, or she didn't like the idea of playing second fiddle. Still, Jerry didn't give up. He was desperate. This was his only opportunity of bringing about an amity between himself and Judy.

In a sense it was a cowardly thing to do, for it rather put Judy on the spot. It would have to be she who would find cause for avoiding him, and this would give Jerry an advantage. He didn't want an advantage over Judy. He wanted things to be on an even footing.

The scheme worked, despite Jerry's cold indifference to Jerry's flirting. A hurt look came into Judy's eyes. Not scorn, nor anger nor contempt. Rather the wounded look of a dog who had trusted its master and the master had turned traitor. It nearly broke Jerry's heart. He felt like a cad. The torture to his soul was trebled. He might have yielded to his human instincts and betrayed his brother, if the brother hadn't arrived on the scene a day before he was expected.

"I want to see you alone, Jerry," Jim said shortly, after the greetings were over. And when they were alone: "I cut my trip a day short because of a letter I had from Julia."

"She wrote that you were making advances to her."

"Well? Is there anything wrong in that? How else would a man indicate his fondness for a woman?"

Jim's lips pressed together tightly. "Jerry, if you weren't my brother, I'd smash your face in!"

"What the devil are you talking about?"

"What do you think I'm talking about? What would any man talk about when he found his brother making love to his future sister-in-law?"

"Sister-in-law! Hold on here. I'm probably dull, but I don't get it. Just who is it you're going to marry?"

"Julia, of course."

"But—your letter said to be nice to Judy—"

"Of course. She's here alone; not used to the west. I thought you might at least be decent enough—"

"Jim," cried Jerry wildly, "do you mind my saying you're the swiftest brother any man ever had on earth!"

Judy was sitting in a hammock under a palm tree in the patio when Jerry found her. She looked up coldly.

"Listen, Judy," Jerry said. "I love you. I've always loved you. I always will love you. I only pretended to love Julia, because I thought you loved Jim, but Jim says he loves Julia and he wanted me to love you, but I thought you loved Jim, who loves Julia, who doesn't love me. Do you see?"

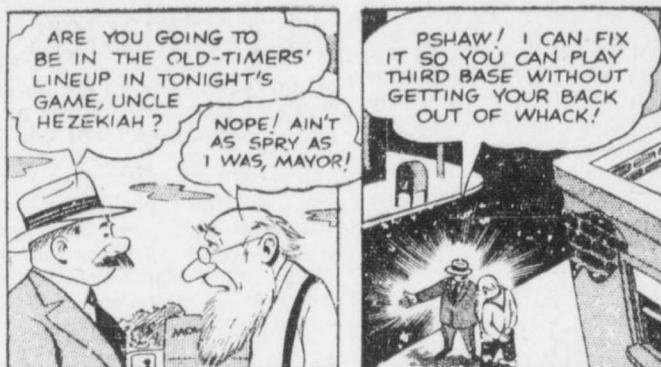

Judy carefully put aside the book she was reading.

"Jerry," she said, "you're crazy."

"Ain't I though?" declared Jerry.

Just Need Right Kind of Clouds To Produce Rain

When the right kind of clouds come along, there may—or not—be rain.

Santa Ana River Development company which was organized to seed clouds over San Jacinto and San Bernardino mountains to make rain to replenish lowering water tables in the area, is all ready to go except for two things: The lack of the right kind of clouds, and Formal receipt of incorporation papers from Sacramento.

John Myline, president, said headquarters and equipment had been set up at Beaumont and that operations will begin soon.

Gaunt Speaks Before Lions

"Kindergarten Economics" was the subject of an address delivered by John Gaunt at yesterday's Lions club meeting in the Blue Room of the Chi Chi. Gaunt is an investment consultant with First California company, a subsidiary of Bank of America.

Program chairman Harold West introduced the visitor. President Charles McGann presided over the regular weekly meeting.

33,000-Volt Shock Fatal To Lineman

Henry Moser Fatally Injured When Knocked From Tower at Garnet

Henry Moser, 35, California Electric Power company employe, was fatally injured Saturday when he accidentally came in contact with a 33,000-volt power line and was knocked to the ground.

Moser was rushed to Community hospital where he succumbed an hour after the accident.

THE FATAL ACCIDENT occurred at the substation at Garnet, north of Palm Springs. Lights dimmed momentarily as result of the tragedy.

He had been working on a steel power pole, according to police reports, and the terrific power cut his safety belt and knocked him to the ground.

MOSER IS SURVIVED by his wife Norma and two children, Pamela Ann and Gary. Other survivors are three brothers and six sisters all living out of town and a father in Arkansas. He lived on Circle Drive.

Services were held at Weifels and Son Sunday afternoon under the direction of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Elder Smith, President Wilson and Elder Hall officiated.

Name It and You'll Quench That Thirst

It's a case of Coke for the Villager who can come up with the most clever name for the Palm Springs Youth Center group, according to Bob Bennett, club director.

The present name is Teen Targets which just doesn't catch the fancy of the members so they are looking to you for a new title.

All entries be in by Nov. 10 and the judges will pick the winner the following night at the regular Youth Council meeting.

By LYLTLE HULL

THE MAJORITY of our citizens seem to have lost faith in the ability of our government to successfully combat the dangers which surround us. They appear to believe that a Republican congress could help our administration—and incidentally, the nation—by putting a stop to the economic blundering which is threatening to ruin us.

But so many of us won't be able to do anything about it on Nov. 7th because we have promised the kids a whole day's picnic. Some of us have to go all the way to Podunk to see our high school lick the Podunkian football team. And how about those ducks? They will be coming in over the blinds on Nov. 7th as never before. So millions of us are darned if we are going to waste one of our few holidays when "my one vote won't make any difference!"

Of course if you have to do the housework you can't throw away your valuable time going in to the polls. (Though your one vote could conceivably save the kids a few years from now.) But it's a rainy day, and George has the car for the game, and you don't like to ask the Jones' to drive you into town.

And who are you going to vote for anyhow? The Republican campaign committee in your district hasn't even told you who is running for office—and why. And you don't want to go in and vote blind! And you certainly haven't time to inquire about the qualifications of the candidates!

So you, dear non-voter, are just one of several million who are going to desert their country when it needs them most. You don't realize what you are doing because you are not very—shall we say?—adroit from the eyes up. Maybe age, time or suffering will someday teach even you what you have done to your country and your children. But we doubt it.

Radio Equipment Sought by City For Police, Fire

Palm Spring police and fire departments will have several new pieces of radio apparatus soon as this week a $9153 bid was awarded to Motorola company for FM radio equipment to replace the present AM receivers and transmitters.

The two departments will receive 12 new two-way transmitter-receivers to be used in police cars and fire trucks. The police motorcycles will also be equipped.

Russell Rink said that the new equipment is far superior to the present gear. He also explained that the Federal Communications Commission is continually restricting radio frequency tolerance necessitating use of FM radio here.

Jewish Women's Group to Meet Next Tuesday

Tuesday the first regular meeting of Palm Springs Jewish Women's group will be held at Jewish Community Center, 323 West Alejo road.

Mrs. Emil Laufer, program chairman, announced that Mrs. Edith Kopelson, Disease, will include "The Dramatization of the Life of Emma Lazarus" in her presentation.

Mrs. Leo Baker will call the group to order at 1 p. m.

December 12 Official Park Election Date

December 12 was officially set as date for election on formation of a Coachella Valley Recreation district. The district embraces the Coachella Valley Union high school district.

Tax for recreation purposes will go partially toward financing care for five fish ponds to be created in the area.

Five High School Finalists Chosen in Speech Contest

Five local finalists in the nation-wide Voice of Democracy public speaking contest were chosen at Palm Springs high Wednesday. The three judges in the Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored event were Alexander Hammond, speech teacher at the high school, Warren Linnville, vice-principal of North End school and Paul Grannis of station KCMJ.

The five winners from a field of 12 are Carol Miller, Mary Pendray, Don Baker, Sue Oliver and Bob Brown. The quintet will be heard over the local radio station within two weeks. Chairman Linnville announced, and the winner will have a recording of his voice sent to the state finals in Sacramento Nov. 18.

The contest is sponsored jointly by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and the national association of Broadcasters and Radio Manufacturers association.

The Sacramento winner will compete for the Western Area crown. Four national district winners throughout the United States will each receive a $500 scholarship to any college or university, a wrist watch and many other personal gifts. In addition, the four will be taken on an all-expense trip to Washington, D. C. where they will be honored at an awards banquet. They will also attend many social events, sightseeing trips, be guests of statesmen and finally, have an audience with the President.

Mrs. Ruth Shusan is again in business on Palm Canyon with her "Tailored Lady" located in the Oasis Building. Mrs. Clara Frank, who has been with Mrs. Shusan in her Phoenix or Palm Springs shop for the past nine years, is managing the Palm Springs store this year.

THE SHERIFF'S SON

(A Short Story)
By RICHARD HILL WILKINSON

JED BLAKE brought the news out to Sheriff Clem Yancey. "—and they shot down Archie Bennett, the cashier, in his tracks. It was Mex Gonzales and two henchmen. Got away with $10,000 in cash."

Sheriff Clem looked at Jed steadily. "And what of Jim, my boy?" "Ain't he out after them? What brings you here with the news, Jed?"

Jed dropped his eyes. "Jim, he was there. He's gettin' in touch with the U. S. marshal at Little Creek now."

Sheriff Clem's huge hand closed on Jed Blake's shirt front, jerking him to his feet. "You lie in your teeth! Jim wasn't there! He don't know about it, else he would have taken the trail himself."

But even as he spoke Clem knew that Jed didn't lie. He knew that Jim, his son, whom he had reared and schooled according to the code of the west, had proven yellow. The realization was like a blow across his face.

"It's the kid!" Gonzales' tone was filled with contempt. "Let him have it!"

"Sorry, Jed," Clem stood a minute, wavering on his feet. Presently he heaved his great body erect, strode over to the wall where hung his ancient six-shooter and belt...

Sheriff Clem galloped into town astride his big grey, flung himself from the saddle in front of the little jail and thrust open the door. Young Jim Yancey, 23, handsome, but lacking his father's strength of countenance, was at the desk. He turned at sound of the door opening. A slow red flush crept into his cheeks.

Sheriff Clem towered over the boy. "You yellow skunk!"

"Now, wait a minute, Dad. It was Mex Gonzales. He's not to be fooled with. I've been in touch with the marshal—"

Jim's voice was cut short by the sting of his father's open palm across his mouth. He stood up, his face going white, then red again. For a minute the two men stared into each other's eyes. Then Jim's glance wavered, dropped. Sheriff Clem, his lips curled, turned and thumped toward the door.

Sheriff Clem picked up the trail of Mex Gonzales and his cronies and followed it south. The desert sun beat down unmercifully on his aged head. The glare of light on sand was reflected in the depths of his grey eyes, eyes that were now miserable, made so by thoughts of Jim. Jim was his only child, motherless. Clem had done his best. He had reared the boy according to the only code he knew—the code of honor and courage and fearlessness. Jim himself had indicated a desire to take over his father's duties, and this had pleased the old man, for upholding law and order, representing right in a world of crime was to him the epitome of character.

He had introduced the boy into the profession slowly, surely. At 21 Jim was made a deputy. At 22 he had established himself in the jail office at Desert's End. Clem had found time to retire to his small ranch, contented in the thoughts Jim was taking over. But today—today had been Jim's first real test, and he had failed...

SO DEEPLY was Sheriff Clem lost in his thoughts that he was not prepared for the ambush. A rifle exploded off to his left. Clem felt the sharp impact of the bullet as it struck his shoulder. He reeled, clutching frantically for the saddle horn, missed pitched headlong...

When Sheriff Clem opened his eyes he found himself lying flat on his back. He saw the flicker of firelight. He saw the sagbrush and twisted his neck. The effort caused a sharp pain to shoot through his body. He realized that he was bound hand and foot, and that his shoulder was stiff and sore.

Three men were crouched about a flickering fire. He recognized the swarthy features of Mex Gonzales. Gonzales was talking. Listening, Clem realized he was being held as hostage, till the trio were well out of the country. He heard the name of Jim, followed by a low laugh. Rage burned in Clem's soul. He cursed his own folly and lack of caution.

A twig snapped near his head. He turned, noiselessly, holding his breath. He saw a form lying along the ground. Then a knife began sliding along the ropes that bound his wrists. He peered into the darkness. His pulse leaped. His rescuer was Jim! Jim, the son he had cursed.

The ropes about Clem's hand fell away. Jim slid around to get at his feet. In doing so he leaned on another stick. The sound of its breaking was like the report of a gun.

Mex Gonzales and his henchmen leaped to their feet. Jim took them, silently, easily. He stood there, the firelight playing on his boyish features.

"It's the kid!" Gonzales' tone was filled with contempt. "Let him have it!"

Clem struggled with the ropes that bound his feet. The roar of guns crashed against his ears. The flash of their firing lighted his weathered, anxious face. At last the ropes were clear. He struggled to his feet, crouched, unconsciously reaching for the gun at his hip that wasn't there.

Jim was on his knees, a thin smile on his lips. The weapon in his hand throbbed, spit fire and smoke. Then there was silence. Deep silence. Clem looked toward the fire. Men were piled there. Gonzales and his two henchmen. At the sheriff's feet Jim lay forward, fell on his face... Clem dressed his son's wound. Relief had flooded his system when he saw the boy live. Jim's eyelids fluttered and Clem dropped to his knees.

"Dad!" "It's O. K., boy. O. K." Clem's throat filled. He couldn't go on. But there was no need. Jim's hand found his father's. They gripped hard and into the eyes of each came understanding and contentment.

Flight Lines

By ELEANOR WAGNER

With the season going into full swing and the weather being what it is, the average flying citizen begins to plan ways and means of making like a bird and taking off for some of Mother Nature's colorful corners of the globe. It has been proved over the years that flying is not just for the birds, nor is it for young people only. Many of the "young in heart" have become aviation enthusiasts as well, and are going about winning an enviable position in the field of aviation.

Here at Palm Springs Airport we are privileged to meet and to serve a great many of America's flying public, and we know that it takes this working combination of young and old to lead aviation into an even more practical, useful future.

ONE YEAR 'ROUND contribution toward this goal is brought to light in that we serve the itinerant pilot and the local pilot in the sale of gas and oil, maintenance, hangar and tie down facilities, aircraft rental and aircraft sales. We also maintain an active flight and ground school numbering between twenty-five and thirty students, many of them in training under the G.I. Bill. We are happy to say that new students are entering the flight school all the time, and at present, many are in the process of being cleared through the Veterans Administration. Palm Springs Airport Corporation is approved for the Private, commercial and Flight Instructor courses and these courses are open to anyone desiring such training.

One of our most recent converts to this flying game is Mrs. Lola Mae Tomkins, grandmother of George Tomkins Jr., who is one of our Commercial students on the G.I. training program. Mrs. Tomkins, nearly eighty, and a great grandmother, too, has really taken to the air with all the vim and vigor of a teen-ager. She visited the Tomkins family here recently and George Jr., George Sr. and grandson, Glenwood Tomkins flew with Mrs. Tomkins from Torrance to Palm Springs for the occasion. George piloted our four-place Stinson on the trip. When Bill Kenast, local Bonanza owner-pilot, learned of this great grandmother's enthusiasm for flying, he immediately offered to take her whisking down the valley, into Arizona and back via lower California. This, undoubtedly, will be a trip that great grandmother Tomkins will never forget, thanks to Bill's gracious hospitality.

LOCALLY SPEAKING, Zaddie Bunker is still going strong with her flight instruction. Under the able guidance of Fred Smith, George Strebe, Zaddie should soon be qualified to go places on her own. No youngster, Zaddie's courageous outlook is running true to form in this new phase of her interesting life.

With the help of flight-ground instructor Hand Henderson and ground instructor, Win Wood, several of our students are completing a part of their training and preparing to enter into more advanced courses. Sam Henderson, 4180 Calle San Antonio, has completed his commercial pilot course and has entered training in the flight instructor course. Randall Gunn, also of Palm Springs, has entered training in the flight instructor course after having successfully completed his commercial course. Louis Fisher, Dr. C. H. Baldwin, Rudy Kemper, Gene Johnson of Johnson's corner, Ray King, Don Meyer, R. W. Peterson, George Tomkins, John Tuchfarber, Don Seiler and Fred Wing of Banning, are all going strong toward becoming commercial pilots. Citizen's Bus Extends Hours

Tanner Motor Livery extended its Citizens Bus service this week to a longer daily schedule. Busses now run from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. except on Sundays and holidays. Busses leave the north end of the city every hour on the hour and the south end a half hour later.

green light in the same course. Most recent solo students are: Blaine Sanford, Mort Robinson (who has since joined the Air Force) and Joe Palozzi.

MANY OF THE STUDENTS have been taking their required cross-country flights recently, visiting such places as Calexico, Blythe, Phoenix, Apple Valley, Las Vegas, Fresno, Sacramento, Bakersfield, San Fernando, Santa Ana, Monrovia, Santa Barbara and Yuma. Cross-country flying, a requirement in all flight courses, can be planned so that the student not only applies what he has been taught in his ground school subjects, but it will give them a practical knowledge about the area in which he lives. To most pilots, this type of travel affords a great amount of relaxation and the feeling of a job well done. After the student is "over the hump" that of having taken his first cross-country alone, he then begins to enjoy his flying.

Winifred Wood is back with us again after an enjoyable vacation via the air lines to New York and Miami. On her return from this east, Win stopped in El Paso, and from there she and Mary Nelson flew to Palm Springs in the Navion. Looking into the near future, we want to tell all of you to prepare yourselves for a bang-up air fair to be held at the Palm Springs Airport sometime in January. The date, unannounced as yet, this will be something different in airshows and is sponsored by our own Junior Chamber of Commerce, and from the plans now under way, this is something you just shouldn't miss!

IT'S EASY TO CRAB!

At Government Officials for not doing what we think is best for us and the nation.

Do YOU have a right to crab?

Not if you DON'T vote! If you are like one of the 47,000,000 "Americans" who did not vote in the last general election, you don't have a right to crab.

Millions of our boys may be called into service, and the rest of us at home called upon to tighten our belts. Why? Because we want to protect our right ALWAYS to vote as free men.

The so-called "American" who doesn't care enough to walk a block to the polls and vote is a SLACKER in this hour of crisis for the nation.

When you vote, vote INTELLIGENTLY.

It's YOUR neck that's in the wringer, Mr. and Mrs. America, in the world struggle between ruthless dictatorship and representative government.

There is one weakness in our political system, however. It is the stupid notion that because a candidate happens to be registered in our party, perhaps for political expediency, we should vote for him, or her, REGARDLESS.

Youthful Hobby Wins U. S. Title for Son of Villager

Years of tinkering with new ideas for motorless sail planes in a garage at the Raymond Cree ranch has resulted in the title of National Champion of U. S. Soaring for Dick Johnson. He won the title with a total of 1095 miles of continuous soaring in the recent Texas Soaring meet.

His brother, Dave Johnson, who lives at the ranch with his wife and young daughter, is the Pacific Coast Champion and also the inventor of many angles to motorless air flight.

BOTH JOHNSONS are sons of Mrs. Raymond Cree and were the featured flyers in Soaring, the national magazine put out by the Soaring Society of the U. S. and Canada. Both Johnsons hope that the next national meet will be held in Palm Springs where the "thermals", the air currents that support motorless flight, have been found by them to be excellent. Annual soaring contests are usually held at Elmiria, New York. This year they moved to Texas, which was not entirely satisfactory to the riders of the airways. The Pacific Coast contests are held at Torrey Pines near del Mar and annually attract many thousands of motorless flight enthusiasts.

Sailplane enthusiasts have their own jargon, almost un-understandable to the layman. They take to the air in their light, motorless planes with a tow to about 1000 feet. After this elevation they are on their own to find the warm air currents which they can ride to higher altitudes.

COMMENTING on his recent West Coast flight, brother Dave Johnson reported, in Soaring, "We had plenty of time to figure our altitude against the remaining miles to go, as the glide we were in lasted about an hour." They had lost their thermals at this point. He continues, "With the exception of our anxiety we had a very pleasant ride during this part of the flight. We were over Nevada, and the last rays of sunlight in that area were very beautiful. I was busy taking color shots with my camera, as there wasn't anything else I could do to further our record flight at that point."

the realtors are also for it. In my business it's practically impossible to show a piece of property after 3 p. m. Other resorts, notably those in Arizona, make note of their sun advantage over Palm Springs.

He presented a petition to the council which he claims held the names of over 60 hotel owners as well as many other signatories. "The hotel owners pay the bills in this community," he said.

JACK SCHULMAN, speaking for the Hotel and Apartment Owners' association, put that group on record as favoring the new time.

Maurice McCann, a city councilman in 1946 when the city last tried Sun Time, led the opposition. "We might better call it 'Confusion Time' because that's all it would result in. It would mean confusion for the one and two-day tourists and those who stay longer are not concerned with clocks. It would mean confusion for local residents because the railroads, the buses, the telephone company and probably the schools would not change their clocks..."

HE READ LETTERS written in 1946 to the council asking for removal of Sun Time. McCann said that Tucson has tried it since 1946 and that they too dropped it.

Charles Knapp, electrician, drew applause and laughter from the standing room only crowd when he said, "Sun Time is like an old army overcoat—it covers a multitude of sins."

Four other spectators rose to remark that they too were opposed to Sun Time. They were Roland Vaile of the school board of trustees, Maynard Groth, a hotel worker, Charles McGann of the Southern Pacific and Mrs. Mildred Kirk.

Connell Resigns as Park Commissioner

City council this week accepted the resignation of Jan Connell, park commissioner, and sent him a letter of thanks for his services to the city.

mittee, were the only voters not included in the official count, according to the election committee report.

WHAT TO DO ABOUT those five ballots, if anything, proved an unanswerable question until it finally was referred to Legal Counselor Saul Ruskin.

Ruskin pointed out that it was now impossible to ascertain whether the five ballots were valid or invalid, and that no basis for questioning the election night decision of the proper committee existed. The directors therefore went on record unanimously as approving the decision of their election committee.

Director Lou Moore's proposal that the membership might prefer to hold the entire election over again was overruled by the board on grounds it would be unnecessary, expensive and damaging because of the time involved.

SEVERAL DIRECTORS demanded to know whether the final results would have been altered if the five invalidated ballots were included in the count. Protests of others that this would place the entire question in the "fifty realm of meaningless guesses" were overruled.

A recount by the election committee to include the extra ballots was ordered. The report disclosed that Mrs. Cordrey and Mead would have been tied for one of the directorships if the ballots in question had been included.

THIS INSPIRED Mrs. Cordrey's resignation, which she proffered in the interests of "clarity and harmony." Mead was not present at this time, having been excused temporarily to respond to an emergency business call.

A roll call of the directorate then disclosed that several vacancies existed due to the departure from Palm Springs of the incumbents.

The board promptly seized on the opportunity to fill two of these vacancies by the appointments of Mrs. Cordrey and Mead.

IN OTHER ACTIONS the board went on record 11-1 in favor of "Sun Time" for Palm Springs, decided to accept an open house invitation extended by the Chamber of Commerce, ordered an invitation extended to the Men's Apparel Guild in California to hold its annual Palm Springs Men's Fashion Roundup here next year, and approved participation and representation in the work of a committee organized to set usage policy of the municipal Polo Grounds.

Mayor-Mayor Meeting Again

Mayor met mayor again last week as Mayor and Mrs. H. C. Cherrington of Walnut Creek got together with Mayor Farrell at the Racquet Club Saturday night.

Other guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. C. Jay Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hillman, Mr. and Mrs. M. Felix, Mr. Roger Sullivan and Mrs. Esther Gilbert.

"HANK" NORMAN

This is the Time to Watch And Listen to the Birds

By JEANETTE O'DAY

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT

JUST RETURNED from 10 crowded weeks in Europe—the hotels were full of Princess Margaret's fiances and left-over channel swimmers. It was a whale of a trip—I shared a stateroom with Moby Dick. I covered 30 countries, looking for a ruler willing to talk peace with Stassen.

Here are some of the high spots of my trip: the Alps.

World War III, far from being inevitable, is not even likely—provided we can jump into World War IV and skip III.

I saw practically everyone I wanted to see. I missed Gorge Gussie, but Wimbledon is a bit too frosty these mornings for lace parties, and she might have been nipped in the bud. Had short chat with Shaw. He quipped, from his hospital bed: "Modern medicine is a miracle. Shame to waste it on sick people."

In England, I talked with cabinet and opposition members. Opinion ranges from "Labor stinks!" to "The Tories stink!" Couldn't get odds on either side next election, so kept my money in my pocket. But they took my pocket to stabilize the currency. I predict Labor will win, followed closely by the Tories and the St. Louis Cardinals.

In the Netherlands, Prime Minister Drees told me what his country will do for North Atlantic defense, but he didn't know I was there, under the table, and spoke in Dutch. In Belgium, I stumbled into the royal riots and found myself on Leopold's throne. I got up to get another cushion and someone else sat down. Just then, a stately gentleman who had befriended me 10 years ago in Antwerp—Prime Minister Paul-Henri Spaak—swept into the room, embraced me, and threw me out of the palace.

In Germany I talked to a lot of Germans and in France I talked to a lot of Frenchmen. Note the prevalence of Germans in Germany and Frenchmen in France. Each is outnumbered in his native land by only the Americans. Under astute questioning, Charles de Gaulle unbosomed himself to me. "Keep your shirt on, Charles," I advised.

Italy's foreign minister, Count Carlo Sforza, had me to lunch at his villa. Things look better in Italy than I had anticipated. I hadn't expected lunch.

If its quick results you want—dial 2249 and ask for the Sun classified girl.

Bird-watching, and hearing, is a well-nigh unavoidable experience throughout Palm Springs oases this time of year.

Big trees are assembly points for myriads of chattering chirpings. Strolling doves; the mocking bird's loud repertoire; flashes of red and yellow feathers; reported mass occupations of seed-eating birds; a certain full-throated warble down chimneys—all such evidence assures us that the local bird colony is back.

Bird interest quickly develops complications when watchmen attempts to identify any but commonest types. Recourse to books and exchange of verbal descriptions merely prove that individual birds are difficult to catalog.

A scientific guide post to the layman bird observer was provided today by William Norman Jupe, member of Desert Museum's directorial board.

This area, he explained, lies outside the main coast routes of seasonal mass bird movements, though some long-distance flyers detour desertward.

Many summer mountain residents wing to the valley during fall months, Jupe pointed out, including western bluebirds, humming birds, fly-catchers and western robins.

Ornithologist Jupe's motion pictures and informative lectures may be enjoyed at the museum again soon.

Meyer Improving Friends Informed

Arthur Meyer, retiring president of Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment association, is reported feeling "Fine and wants to come home by ambulance in two weeks," according to word from Mrs. Meyer received by friends in Palm Springs.

Operation of Villa Hermosa continues uninterrupted with Meyer's regular staff in charge. Mrs. Meyer and their daughter Marilyn are dividing their time between their Villa Hermosa penthouse and the Los Angeles apartment which Mrs. Meyer has taken in order to be near Cedars of Lebanon hospital.

Truck Route Plan Under City's Study

Trucks with a carrying capacity of more than two tons may soon be forced to travel a truck route through Palm Springs. The object of the move would be to exclude heavy vehicles from the central portion of Palm Canyon drive.

Several complaints have been received recently about the increasing truck traffic through the city. Councilman Florian Boyd suggested the trucks use Indian avenue but Earle Strebe feared the many stops on that street would increase the motor noise of the heavy vehicles.

The council voted to consider the problem and come to a decision through personal observation of the feasible routes.

Morrey Home Sale Reported Today

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turk of Beverly Hills are buying the Las Palmas home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrey. It was announced this week as the deal went into escrow.

Turk is a stock broker. Realtor Robert Ransom declined to reveal the purchase price.

antenna tower on Mount San Jacinto which would wire TV to Palm Springs. Gray said that there would be a "individual customer's tie-in charge but that nobody is going to be asked for any money until television is installed in his home."

The Gray TV would probably send in the signal by wire to homes, whereas Howard-Yale Inc. promise use of the air waves.
